Proclamation
Wisconsin Children's Outdoor Bill of Rights

WHEREAS, Wisconsin is a land rich in natural beauty and glorious landscapes, which should be shared with the children and families of the state;

WHEREAS, Wisconsin has led the nation in a long tradition of environmental protection and conservation, boasting leaders such as Aldo Leopold, John Muir and Gaylord Nelson;

WHEREAS, Wisconsin has a long standing commitment to its natural heritage, connecting its people to the land and passing its heritage and traditions to future generations;

WHEREAS, Children are losing their connection to the natural world, which threatens their health, quality of life, readiness for future job opportunities and the future of our natural resources;

WHEREAS, Children who spend frequent time outdoors have significantly less stress, enhanced sensory perception, experience fewer attention difficulties and decreased rates of physical and emotional illness and obesity;

WHEREAS, the Wisconsin State Assembly recognizes that every Wisconsin child should have the opportunity to:

Discover Wisconsin's diverse wilderness—prairies, forests, wetlands, and beaches;

Breathe clean air and drink clean water;

Splash, play and swim in safe, clean lakes and rivers;

Visit a working farm;

Share a hunting or fishing experience with a family member, friend or mentor;

Follow a trail, ride it or walk it;

Play, snowshoe, ski, snowboard or sled in the snow

Camp out under the stars

Eat meals made from local products and ingredients

Play in the dirt, plant a seed and grow a garden

Explore and connect with Wisconsin's natural spaces and wild places.
