DOA:.....Byrnes, BB0123 - Allow DOT to issue non REAL ID compliant products

FOR 2011-13 BUDGET -- NOT READY FOR INTRODUCTION

do NOT go

1 AN ACT ...; relating to: the budget.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current federal law, the REAL ID Act of 2005 (REAL ID Act) prohibits a federal agency from accepting for any "official purpose," including boarding commercial aircraft and entering federal buildings, an operator's license or identification card issued by a state unless the state satisfies requirements contained in the REAL ID Act. The REAL ID Act allows states to issue operator's licenses and identification cards that are not compliant with REAL ID standards if they clearly state on their face that they cannot be accepted by any federal agency for federal identification or any other official purpose and if they use a unique design or color indicator to alert federal agency and other law enforcement personnel that they are not REAL ID compliant. Under 2007 Wisconsin Act 20 (the biennial budget act), certain provisions specified in the federal REAL ID Act are incorporated into state law when DOT provides notice that it is ready to implement the federal REAL ID Act. Among these provisions is the requirement that DOT follow certain procedures in processing applications for driver's licenses and identification cards and that each driver's license and identification card include a photograph.

This bill allows DOT, upon the implementation of the REAL ID Act in Wisconsin, to process applications for driver's licenses and identification cards in a manner other than that required by REAL ID if the driver's licenses and identification cards are marked to indicate that they are not REAL ID compliant and

DOT processes the applications in compliance with DOT practices and procedures applicable immediately prior to implementation of REAL ID. An applicant for a REAL ID noncompliant driver's license or identification card will still be required to provide to DOT: 1) an identification document that includes either the applicant's photograph or both the applicant's full legal name and date of birth; 2) documentation showing the applicant's date of birth, which may be the same as item 1); 3) proof of the applicant's social security number or verification that the applicant is not eligible for a social security number; 4) documentation showing the applicant's name and address of principal residence; and 5) documentary proof that the applicant is a U.S. citizen or is otherwise lawfully present in the United States. However, in processing an application for a REAL ID noncompliant driver's license or identification card, DOT is not required to meet the standards for document retention and verification that are imposed for REAL ID compliant products.

Current law provides for limited exceptions allowing DOT to issue a driver's license that does not contain a photograph of the license holder, including, by DOT rule, a religious belief exception. There are no similar photograph exceptions under current law for identification cards. Under current law, after the implementation of REAL ID, all REAL ID compliant driver's licenses and identification cards must contain a photograph.

Under this bill, until the implementation of the REAL ID Act, the photograph exception for driver's licenses continues and a new religious belief photograph exception is created for identification cards. After the implementation of REAL ID, this bill creates a religious belief photograph exception for REAL ID noncompliant driver's licenses and identification cards.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

This draft reconciles LRB-0315 and LRB-0321, both of which contain two treatments of s. 343.50 (4). This draft removes both treatments of s. 343.50 (4) from LRB-0321 and adds the appropriate treatment to LRB-0315. In this reconciliation process, I noticed an error in LRB-0321. The first treatment of s. 343.50 (4) in LRB-0321/2 should not be there because the creation of s. 343.50 (4g) (cross-referenced in s. 343.50 (4)) does not become effective until the implementation of REAL ID. Accordingly, I have added only the second treatment of s. 343.50 (4) to LRB-0315. Both LRB-0315 and LRB-0321 should continue to appear in the compiled bill.

This draft reconciles LRB-0315 and LRB-0321, both of which contain two treatments of s. 343.50 (4). This draft removes both treatments of s. 343.50 (4) from LRB-0321 and adds the appropriate treatment to LRB-0315. In this reconciliation process, I noticed an error in LRB-0321. The first treatment of s. 343.50 (4) in LRB-0321/2 should not be there because the creation of s. 343.50 (4g) (cross-referenced in s. 343.50 (4)) does not become effective until the implementation of REAL ID. Accordingly, I have added only the second treatment of s. 343.50 (4) to LRB-0315. Both LRB-0315 and LRB-0321 should continue to appear in the compiled bill.

Thanks. I need to make a little change - unfortunately the text doesn't quite match the analysis (and your description just below). The /4 is on the way. Aaron

Aaron,

It's my understanding that the intent is to allow the photo exception for the ID cards immediately, as in the analysis of /3.

Tyler,

On this draft, is the last paragraph of the analysis consistent with your intent? In particular, I am wondering whether you want the photo exception for ID cards to kick in immediately or only after implementation of REAL ID. There was a glitch in the /2 draft that I tried to fix in the /3, but looking it over again I'm not sure that I actually fixed the problem. Let me know so I can do a quick redraft if necessary. If there is no time, I'll try to fix it on the master.

Thanks. Aaron

DOA:.....Byrnes, BB0123 - Allow DOT to issue non REAL ID compliant products

FOR 2011-13 BUDGET -- NOT READY FOR INTRODUCTION

g
Changes - pp. 11-12

Don't gen

1 AN ACT ...; relating to: the budget.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current federal law, the REAL ID Act of 2005 (REAL ID Act) prohibits a federal agency from accepting for any "official purpose," including boarding commercial aircraft and entering federal buildings, an operator's license or identification card issued by a state unless the state satisfies requirements contained in the REAL ID Act. The REAL ID Act allows states to issue operator's licenses and identification cards that are not compliant with REAL ID standards if they clearly state on their face that they cannot be accepted by any federal agency for federal identification or any other official purpose and if they use a unique design or color indicator to alert federal agency and other law enforcement personnel that they are not REAL ID compliant. Under 2007 Wisconsin Act 20 (the biennial budget act), certain provisions specified in the federal REAL ID Act are incorporated into state law when DOT provides notice that it is ready to implement the federal REAL ID Act. Among these provisions is the requirement that DOT follow certain procedures in processing applications for driver's licenses and identification cards and that each driver's license and identification card include a photograph.

This bill allows DOT, upon the implementation of the REAL ID Act in Wisconsin, to process applications for driver's licenses and identification cards in a manner other than that required by REAL ID if the driver's licenses and identification cards are marked to indicate that they are not REAL ID compliant and

DOT processes the applications in compliance with DOT practices and procedures applicable immediately prior to implementation of REAL ID. An applicant for a REAL ID noncompliant driver's license or identification card will still be required to provide to DOT: 1) an identification document that includes either the applicant's photograph or both the applicant's full legal name and date of birth; 2) documentation showing the applicant's date of birth, which may be the same as item 1); 3) proof of the applicant's social security number or verification that the applicant is not eligible for a social security number; 4) documentation showing the applicant's name and address of principal residence; and 5) documentary proof that the applicant is a U.S. citizen or is otherwise lawfully present in the United States. However, in processing an application for a REAL ID noncompliant driver's license or identification card, DOT is not required to meet the standards for document retention and verification that are imposed for REAL ID compliant products.

Current law provides for limited exceptions allowing DOT to issue a driver's license that does not contain a photograph of the license holder, including, by DOT rule, a religious belief exception. There are no similar photograph exceptions under current law for identification cards. Under current law, after the implementation of REAL ID, all REAL ID compliant driver's licenses and identification cards must contain a photograph.

Under this bill, until the implementation of the REAL ID Act, the photograph exception for driver's licenses continues and a new religious belief photograph exception is created for identification cards. After the implementation of REAL ID, this bill creates a religious belief photograph exception for REAL ID noncompliant driver's licenses and identification cards.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. 343.03 (3r) of the statutes is created to read:

5 consistent with requirements under applicable federal law and regulations to
6 indicate that the license is issued in accordance with P.L. 109-13, section 202 (d) (11),
7 and is not intended to be accepted by any federal agency for federal identification or 8 any other official purpose.

ATTN: Tyler Byrnes

As stated in the drafter's note to LRB-0321/3, I noticed an error in the /2 version related to the timing of when s. 343.50 (4g) becomes effective. My effort to correct that error in the /3 version failed. I have corrected the error in this draft by "double-drafting" s. 343.50 (4g) and modifying the effective date provision. Because of the reconciliation of this draft with LRB-0315, I also had to redraft LRB-0315 to accomplish this correction.

This draft continues to reconcile LRB-0315 and LRB-0321, as discussed in the drafter's note to the /3 version. Both LRB-0315 and LRB-0321 should continue to appear in the compiled bill. ✓

2011 - 2012 LEGISLATURE

LRB-0321/4

DOA:.....Byrnes, BB0123 - Allow DOT to issue non REAL ID compliant products

FOR 2011-13 BUDGET -- NOT READY FOR INTRODUCTION

1 AN ACT ...; relating to: the budget.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current federal law, the REAL ID Act of 2005 (REAL ID Act) prohibits a federal agency from accepting for any "official purpose," including boarding commercial aircraft and entering federal buildings, an operator's license or identification card issued by a state unless the state satisfies requirements contained in the REAL ID Act. The REAL ID Act allows states to issue operator's licenses and identification cards that are not compliant with REAL ID standards if they clearly state on their face that they cannot be accepted by any federal agency for federal identification or any other official purpose and if they use a unique design or color indicator to alert federal agency and other law enforcement personnel that they are not REAL ID compliant. Under 2007 Wisconsin Act 20 (the biennial budget act), certain provisions specified in the federal REAL ID Act are incorporated into state law when DOT provides notice that it is ready to implement the federal REAL ID Act. Among these provisions is the requirement that DOT follow certain procedures in processing applications for driver's licenses and identification cards and that each driver's license and identification card include a photograph.

This bill allows DOT, upon the implementation of the REAL ID Act in Wisconsin, to process applications for driver's licenses and identification cards in a manner other than that required by REAL ID if the driver's licenses and identification cards are marked to indicate that they are not REAL ID compliant and

DOT processes the applications in compliance with DOT practices and procedures applicable immediately prior to implementation of REAL ID. An applicant for a REAL ID noncompliant driver's license or identification card will still be required to provide to DOT: 1) an identification document that includes either the applicant's photograph or both the applicant's full legal name and date of birth; 2) documentation showing the applicant's date of birth, which may be the same as item 1); 3) proof of the applicant's social security number or verification that the applicant is not eligible for a social security number; 4) documentation showing the applicant's name and address of principal residence; and 5) documentary proof that the applicant is a U.S. citizen or is otherwise lawfully present in the United States. However, in processing an application for a REAL ID noncompliant driver's license or identification card, DOT is not required to meet the standards for document retention and verification that are imposed for REAL ID compliant products.

Current law provides for limited exceptions allowing DOT to issue a driver's license that does not contain a photograph of the license holder, including, by DOT rule, a religious belief exception. There are no similar photograph exceptions under current law for identification cards. Under current law, after the implementation of REAL ID, all REAL ID compliant driver's licenses and identification cards must contain a photograph.

Under this bill, until the implementation of the REAL ID Act, the photograph exception for driver's licenses continues and a new religious belief photograph exception is created for identification cards. After the implementation of REAL ID, this bill creates a religious belief photograph exception for REAL ID noncompliant driver's licenses and identification cards.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
