Under current law, certain management services functions are performed in the office of the state treasurer. This bill transfers those functions, as determined by the secretary of administration, together with all assets and liabilities, tangible personal property, contracts, rules and orders, and pending matters that are primarily related to those functions, as determined by that secretary, to DOA. The bill, however, does not transfer any positions relating to those functions.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

2

SECTION 9149. Nonstatutory provisions; Treasurer.

3

(1) TRANSFER OF MANAGEMENT SERVICES FUNCTIONS TO DEPARTMENT OF

4

ADMINISTRATION.

1 (a) Assets and liabilities. On the effective date of this paragraph, the assets and 2 liabilities of the office of the state treasurer that are primarily related to 3 management services, as determined by the secretary of administration, shall 4 become the assets and liabilities of the department of administration.

5 (b) Tangible personal property. On the effective date of this paragraph, all
6 tangible personal property, including records, of the office of the state treasurer that 7 are primarily related to management services, as determined by the secretary of 8 administration, shall become the tangible personal property of the department of 9 administration.

10 (c) Contracts. All contracts entered into by the office of the state treasurer in 11 effect on the effective date of this paragraph that are primarily related to 12 management services, as determined by the secretary of administration, remain in 13 effect and are transferred to the department of administration. The department of 14 administration shall carry out any obligations under such a contract until the 15 contract is modified or rescinded by the department of administration to the extent
16 allowed under the contract.

17 (d) Rules and orders. All rules promulgated by the office of the state treasurer
18 in effect on the effective date of this paragraph that are primarily related to
19 management services, as determined by the secretary of administration, remain in 20 effect until their specified expiration date or until amended or repealed by the 21 department of administration. All orders issued by the office of the state treasurer
22 in effect on the effective date of this paragraph that are primarily related to
23 management services, as determined by the secretary of administration, remain in 24 effect until their specified expiration date or until modified or rescinded by the 25 department of administration.
