Subject: Re: AJR 100 Amendment

Hey Rick-

One last request-can you use the same language as an amendment to ab 56? Thank you! We are just finishing up in caucus.

Good Morning Chris:

The amendment you asked to have redrafted to AJR 100 isn't going to work. AJR 100 amends the constitution and is before the assembly on 1st consideration; the amendment you had drafted last week creates new statutory law. As an alternative, and if you wanted to use AJR 100 as your vehicle for talking about the national mortgage settlement, you could draft an amendment to AJR 100, which amends the constitution in the follow way:

"All moneys received by the state from any court judgment or settlement, including any moneys that the judgment or settlement provides may be expended for discretionary purposes, shall be deposited in a segregated fund created by law and may only be expended on purposes for which the action was originally commenced."

Let us know what you want to do.

Rick

At the locations indicated, amend the bill as follows:

1. Page 1, line 3: after "~~income~~" insert "expenditure of moneys received by the state from court judgments and settlements,".

2. Page 2, line 1: before that line insert:

"SECTION 1g. 20.932 of the statutes is created to read:

20.932 Expenditure of moneys received from court judgments and settlements. All of the moneys received by the state from any court judgment or settlement on or after the effective date of this section ... [LRB inserts date], including any moneys that the judgment or settlement provides may be expended for discretionary purposes, may only be expended on purposes for which the action was originally commenced."

3. Page 2, line 1: delete "SECTION 1" and substitute "SECTION 1m".
