Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

The majority of District Attorneys who provided insight into this bill anticipated that there would be no fiscal impact on their offices; however, one DA indicated that it would have a fiscal effect, but was uncertain to what degree.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

In general, most DAs thought this bill would not have a fiscal effect on their offices. One DA, however, anticipated an increased workload for his office, but was unable to identify what the additional cost would be.
