ANNOUNCEMENTS, ADJOURNMENT HONORS, AND REMARKS UNDER SPECIAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Risser, with unanimous consent, asked that when the Senate adjourn, it do so in honor of Liz Jones–Queensland of the Chief Clerk’s staff, who is celebrating her birthday today.

Senator Taylor, with unanimous consent, asked that when the Senate adjourn, it do so in honor of one of her intern, Jacob Bogost. He is joining us from the American Collegiate Adventures program and will be a sophomore at Madison Memorial High School this fall. We wish him the best of luck.

Senator Schultz, with unanimous consent, asked that when the Senate adjourn, it do so in memory of Gilman Moe, who died on Sunday, July 24, 2011 at the age of 79.

Senator Schultz, with unanimous consent, asked that when the Senate adjourn, it do so in memory of David Marchant, who passed away last week at the age of 54 after a courageous battle with cancer. David was a devoted family man, ran a successful business in the city of Oregon, and was a proud long–time statistician for the World Champion Green Bay Packers. David is the brother of the Senate Chief Clerk Rob Marchant, and our thoughts and prayers go out to his family at this time.

Senator Lazich, with unanimous consent, asked that when the Senate adjourn, it do so in honor of Jerome Cesarz, a constituent, veteran, and small-business owner. Jerome Cesarz passed away July 20, 2011 at the age of 79.

Senator Wanggaard, with unanimous consent, asked that when the Senate adjourn, it do so in honor of his stellar summer interns, Christopher Epping and Alice Friedman. Chris and Alice are both excellent students at UW-Madison, and they have been outstanding additions to the Senator's staff. Senator Wanggaard is glad that they joined his office for the summer, and he appreciates their hard work and enthusiasm!

Senator Jauch, with unanimous consent, asked that when the Senate adjourn, it do so in honor of Rebcca Jin, a junior from Middleton High School, who has been interning in the Senator's office over the summer.

Senator Miller, with unanimous consent, asked that when the Senate adjourn, it do so in memory of the 77 victims of the terrorist attack in Norway. As a percentage of the national population, the number of victims exceeded the number of victims in the 9/11 attacks in the U.S. Our sympathy goes out to their families, neighbors and countrymen.

Senator Hansen, with unanimous consent, asked that when the Senate adjourn, it do so in honor of Spc. Justin Lane of Green Bay, who is serving with the 428th EN Co. out of Wausau. Justin was hit by an IED on July 2nd and lost both of his legs. Our thoughts are with him.

Senator Moulton, with unanimous consent, asked that when the Senate adjourn, it do so in honor of his two granddaughters, who were gracious enough to accompany their grandfather to the Capitol today.

Senator Fitzgerald, with unanimous consent, asked that when the Senate adjourn, it do so in honor of his wife Lisa and their 25th wedding anniversary, which is tomorrow.
