Tardy filing fees

Currently, each employer must file a quarterly report with DWD identifying the name of and wages paid to each employee who is employed by the employer in employment covered by the UI law during the most recent calendar quarter. With limited exceptions, if an employer is delinquent in filing the report, the employer must pay a tardy filing fee of $50. Revenue from tardy filing fees is used for various purposes to support the UI program. This bill increases the tardy filing fee to $100 or $20 per employee, whichever is greater, but provides that if the employer files the report within 30 days of its due date, the fee remains at $50.

Work search audits of claimants

The bill requires DWD to conduct random audits on claimants for regular UI benefits to assess compliance with the UI law's work search requirement. The bill requires DWD to include in its annual fraud report that is presented to the Council on Unemployment Insurance information about these audits, including the number of audits conducted in the previous year and the results of those audits.

Online portal for filing complaints

The bill requires DWD to maintain a portal on the Internet that allows employers to log in and file complaints with DWD related to the administration of the UI law.

Submittal dates for departmental reports

Currently, on or about January 15 of each odd-numbered year, the secretary of workforce development submits to the governor and legislative leaders a statement of UI financial outlook, which contains information relating to the current and projected fiscal condition of the UI program, recommendations for any changes in the UI law, and a report of the deliberations of the Council on Unemployment Insurance and any position of the council concerning the proposed changes. In addition, on or about February 15 of each year, DWD must furnish to the Council on Unemployment Insurance a report summarizing DWD's activities related to detection and prosecution of UI fraud during the preceding year. This bill separates the report of the fiscal condition of the UI program and recommended changes in the UI law from the report of the deliberations and position of the council and requires submittal of the former no later than April 15 of each odd-numbered year and of the later no later than May 15 of each odd-numbered year. The bill also requires submittal of the report concerning fraud no later than March 15 of each year.

Fraud investigation positions

The bill requires DWD to request funding from the U.S. Department of Labor to hire additional employees to perform UI fraud investigation.

Social security numbers maintained by DOT

Under current law, an individual who applies to the Department of Transportation (DOT) for vehicle title, for a motor vehicle operator's license or an identification card, or for registration as a motor vehicle dealer must, with limited exceptions, state his or her social security number on the application. DOT is generally required to maintain the confidentiality of these social security numbers but may disclose these social security numbers in limited circumstances, including to the Department of Children and Families and DOR for specified purposes.

This bill allows these social security numbers to also be disclosed to DWD for the sole purpose of enforcing or administering DWD's collection responsibilities related to UI.

Information relating to financing of UI system

This bill directs DWD to provide information to employers concerning the financing of the UI system, including the computation of reserve percentages and their effect upon the contribution and solvency rates of employers, and to post this information on the Internet. The bill, also directs DWD to include this information on any statements of account that DWD provides to employers and to provide this information in writing to each employer who becomes newly subject to a requirement to pay contributions or to reimburse for benefits paid under the UI law.

UI handbook for employers

The bill requires DWD to create and keep up-to-date a handbook for employers for the purpose of informing employers who are subject to the UI law about the provisions and requirements of the UI law. The handbook must include all of the following: 1) information about the function and purpose of UI; 2) a description of the rights and responsibilities of employers under the UI law, including the rights and responsibilities associated with hearings to establish eligibility for benefits under the law; 3) a description of the circumstances under which claimants are eligible and ineligible for UI benefits under the UI law; 4) disclaimers explaining that the contents of the handbook may not be relied upon as legally enforceable and that adherence to the contents does not guarantee a particular result for a decision on a UI matter; and 5) a line to allow an employee to sign to acknowledge that the employee is aware of the contents of the handbook. DWD must make the handbook available on the Internet and must, for a fee, distribute printed copies of the handbook to employers who so request.

Electronic database of decisions

The bill requires DWD to maintain a searchable, electronic database of significant decisions made by the labor and industry review commission on UI matters for the use of the attorneys and certain other employees employed by DWD.

Initial training and continuing education for appeal tribunals (ALJs)

The bill requires DWD to conduct training for all individuals who serve as appeal tribunals, commonly known as administrative law judges (ALJs), that are employed or appointed by DWD to hear UI appeals to prepare them to perform their duties. The bill requires an initial training, for newly employed or appointed ALJs, and requires DWD to conduct similar training for individuals currently serving as ALJs within one year of the bill's general effective date. The bill also provides that DWD must require all individuals who serve as ALJs to satisfy continuing education requirements, as prescribed by DWD.

Due date for successorship applications

Currently, with certain exceptions, if a business is transferred from one employer to another employer, the transferee may, under certain conditions, request that DWD treat it as a successor for purposes of UI experience, including contribution (tax) and benefit liability. A successorship application must be received by DWD on or before the contribution payment due date for the first full quarter following the date of the transfer. This bill permits DWD to accept an application not more than 90 days after its due date if the transferee satisfies DWD that its application was late as a result of excusable neglect.

Standard affidavit form

This bill directs DWD to prescribe by rule a standard affidavit form that may be used by parties to UI administrative appeals and to make the form available to employers and claimants. Use of the form by a party does not eliminate the right of an opposing party to cross examine the affiant concerning the facts asserted in the affidavit.
