2013 BILL

1 AN ACT to create 118.315 of the statutes; relating to: parental notification for 2 questioning pupils about criminal activity.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill prohibits an official, employee, or agent of a public, private, or charter school from questioning a pupil attending the school about criminal activity without notifying the pupil's parent unless the official, employee, or agent suspects that the pupil is being abused or is the victim of certain specified crimes and the questioning relates to the suspected abuse or crime.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

3 SECTION 1. 118.315 of the statutes is created to read:
4 118.315 Questioning pupils about criminal activity. (1) Except as 5 provided in sub. (2), an official, employee, or agent of a public, private, or charter
6 school may not question a pupil attending the school about a suspected or alleged
7 violation of any state or federal criminal law without first notifying the pupil's parent
8 or guardian.
