Subject: vehicle registration & licensing for United State Foreign Service individuals

Erik,

I was told that this was one of your areas of expertise and hope that it is the case. Per my voicemail, sorry if was a bit lengthy, I am requesting a bill draft to allow Wisconsin residents that are employed by the United States Foreign Service the same vehicle license and registration benefits as active duty military personnel when they are ordered abroad. To the best of my knowledge this would affect some 40-50 individuals that often are tasked out of country or overseas for extended periods of time. My research has indicated that these individuals could supply form OF-126 (travel order forms) as proof of their status. See email from Queensland below (last sentence).

I got the following information from Mike Queensland (Legislative Council) and hope that it may assist you:

This email is in response to your request for information about registration fees as they pertain to members of the military on active duty.

Chapter 341, Stats. provides for the registration of vehicles in Wisconsin.

Under s. 341.08 (7), Stats., certain vehicle's registration does not expire on the date of expiration of registration if, on that date of expiration, the registrant is on active duty in the U.S. armed forces and is absent from this state. Any registration extended under this expires 30 days after the registrant returns to the state or 90 days after the registrant is discharged from active duty, whichever is earlier. If a registration is renewed after an extension, the renewal period begins on the day after the date of expiration of registration.

Section 341.09 (3), Stats. also allows certain individuals on active duty that have been granted furlough to obtain, without charge, a temporary operation plate which authorizes the applicant to operate any vehicle owned or designated by the applicant without registration of the vehicle. The plate is valid only while the applicant is on furlough and for a period not to exceed 30 days.

In addition, s. 341.33 (2), Stats. requires the Department of Transportation (DOT) to refund the unused portion of a registration fee paid for the registration of a vehicle owned by a person who is entering active service in the naval or military forces of the United States if the person makes application for such refund upon a form prescribed by the department, furnishes such proof as the department may require that the vehicle will not be operated in this or another state during the remainder of the period for which the vehicle is registered, and returns to the department the certificate of registration and registration plates. The refund shall be computed on the basis of one-twelfth of the annual registration fee or one twenty-fourth of the biennial registration fee paid for the vehicle, multiplied by the number of full months remaining in the period for which the vehicle is registered when the vehicle ceases to be operated.

You may want to consider contacting DOT and Rep. Krug's constituent to brainstorm about whether there are any unique challenges in expanding these benefits to Foreign Service officers, specifically, providing a way for a Foreign Service officer to prove his or her status.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Should you require further information or have any questions please contact me. Telephone number is 266-0215.

1 AN ACT ...; relating to: operator's licenses held by, and registration of motor
2 vehicles by, persons on active duty in the U.S. foreign service.✓

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, persons on active duty in the U.S. armed forces✓ are accorded certain privileges related to vehicle registration and motor vehicle operator licensing. Among these are the following:✓

1. If, on the date of expiration of a vehicle's registration, the registrant is on active duty in the U.S. armed forces and is absent from the state, the vehicle's registration does not expire. Instead, the vehicle's registration expires 30 days after the registrant returns to this state or 90 days after the registrant is discharged from active duty, whichever is earlier.✓

2. Upon proper application, the Department of Transportation (DOT)✓ must issue, without charge, a temporary operation plate that authorizes a person who is engaged in the active military service of the United States✓ or its allies and who has been granted a furlough to operate a vehicle without registration of the vehicle.✓ The plate is valid while the applicant is on furlough and for a period not to exceed 30 days.✓

3. DOT must refund the unused portion of a registration fee paid for the registration of a vehicle owned by a person who is entering active service in the naval or military forces of the United States upon the person's providing proof that the vehicle will not be operated in this or another state during the remainder of the period for which the vehicle is registered and return of the certificate of registration and registration plates.✓

4. If a person who holds a valid license is unable to make a renewal application within the period declared by the department due to serving with any branch of the armed services, the person may apply for a renewal of the license at any time during the person's service or within ^{six} 6 months after the date of discharge from service.

5. If, on the expiration date of an operator's license, the licensee is on active duty in the U.S. armed forces and is absent from this state, the license does not expire. Instead, the license expires 30 days after the licensee returns to the state or 90 days after the licensee is discharged from active duty, whichever is earlier.

Under this bill, each of the privileges listed above is also accorded to persons on active duty in the U.S. foreign service.

Randy,

I have this draft ready to go out. Before sending it to you, I wanted to let you know that I came across another provision in ch. 341 that appear applicable to this draft. Section 341.31 (1) (d) allows a person who has not used a non-automobile vehicle because of active duty military service to pay only a portion of the registration fee. Because this appears quite similar to the other provisions treated in this draft, I have included it. Please let me know if this provision should not be included.

I don't know how he wants to define "member of the U.S. foreign service" – in the text or in a definitions section

If in the text, I would suggest "member of the US Foreign Service appointed under Section 301(a)(1) or Section 303 of the Foreign Service Act of 1980 (as amended) (22 USC Sections 3942(a)(1) and 3943.)"

If that's too cumbersome in the text he might want to include a separate section saying that "A member of the US Foreign Service is defined as an individual appointed under Section 301(a)(1) or Section 303 of the Foreign Service Act of 1980 (as amended) (22 USC Sections 3942(a)(1) and 3943.)"

Would that work?

1 AN ACT to amend 341.08 (7), 341.09 (3), 341.33 (2), 343.20 (3) and 343.20 (4) of
2 the statutes; relating to: operator's licenses held by, and registration of motor
3 vehicles by, persons on active duty in the U.S. foreign service.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, persons on active duty in the U.S. armed forces are accorded certain privileges related to vehicle registration and motor vehicle operator licensing. Among these are the following:

1. If, on the date of expiration of a vehicle's registration, the registrant is on active duty in the U.S. armed forces and is absent from the state, the vehicle's registration does not expire. Instead, the vehicle's registration expires 30 days after the registrant returns to this state or 90 days after the registrant is discharged from active duty, whichever is earlier.

2. Upon proper application, the Department of Transportation (DOT) must issue, without charge, a temporary operation plate that authorizes a person who is engaged in the active military service of the United States or its allies and who has been granted a furlough to operate a vehicle without registration of the vehicle. The plate is valid while the applicant is on furlough and for a period not to exceed 30 days.

3. DOT must refund the unused portion of a registration fee paid for the registration of a vehicle owned by a person who is entering active service in the naval or military forces of the United States upon the person's providing proof that the vehicle will not be operated in this or another state during the remainder of the period for which the vehicle is registered and return of the certificate of registration and registration plates.

4. If a person who holds a valid license is unable to make a renewal application within the period declared by DOT due to serving with any branch of the armed services, the person may apply for a renewal of the license at any time during the person's service or within six months after the date of discharge from service.

5. If, on the expiration date of an operator's license, the licensee is on active duty in the U.S. armed forces and is absent from this state, the license does not expire. Instead, the license expires 30 days after the licensee returns to the state or 90 days after the licensee is discharged from active duty, whichever is earlier.

Under this bill, each of the privileges listed above is also accorded to persons on active duty in the U.S. foreign service.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. 341.08 (7) of the statutes is amended to read:

2 341.08 (7) A vehicle's registration does not expire on the date of expiration of
3 registration under ss. 341.25 to 341.36 if, on that date of expiration, the registrant
4 is on active duty in the U.S. armed forces or U.S. foreign service and is absent from 5 this state. Any registration extended under this subsection expires 30 days after the 6 registrant returns to this state or 90 days after the registrant is discharged from 7 active duty, whichever is earlier. If a registration is renewed after an extension under 8 this subsection, the renewal period shall begin on the day after the date of expiration 9 of registration.
