Hi Steve,

I have a small language change for the resolution. Looking back, he was not actually the founder of NAACP but rather a long time leader.

Can we change the first lines to:

"Whereas, Felmers Chaney, Milwaukee's first black police sergeant and longtime leader of the Milwaukee NAACP, passed away on December 5, 2012, at the age of 94; and

Whereas, Felmers Chaney became President of the NAACP Milwaukee in 1987, leading it for twelve years as he worked to fight discrimination in Milwaukee's schools, jobs, and housing; and"

Last edits (I'm sorry to do this so many times!)

Can it say Felmers O. Chaney every time we say his full name? Also, instead of "first black police sergeant" in line 2, we've been asked to change it to "first "African-American police sergeant"

Thanks for all of your help with this!

Hi Steve,

We gave the latest Felmers O. Chaney resolution draft one last look and caught a few small things:

1. (page 1, line 2) Insert hyphen between "African" and "American"
2. (page 1, line 3) Replace "NAACP" with "National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP)"
3. (page 1, line 6) Replace "NAACP Milwaukee" with "Milwaukee NAACP"
4. (page 2, line 5) Delete hyphen between "American" and "owned"
5. (page 2, lines 4-5) Place hyphen between "African" and "American"

After those changes, we will be good to jacket.

Thanks for your assistance in getting this together.
