Relating to: commending the Wisconsin Air National Guard 115th Fighter Wing on its 65th anniversary.

Whereas, The Wisconsin Air National Guard 115th Fighter Wing was created in 1948; and

Whereas, over the last 65 years, much has changed including aircraft, missions, personnel, technology and our culture but the passion and commitment to the profession of arms in the defense of our country and preservation of our freedoms is as strong in 2013 as it was in 1948; and

Whereas, the 115th FW currently has nearly 1,200 airmen and women, of which nearly 400 are full-time employees who serve our state and country with pride and professionalism; and

Whereas, with a local annual financial impact of over $86 million to Madison and the surrounding areas, 115th FW members are responsible citizens who are college students and employees of local businesses with strong relationships and partnerships in the community; and

Whereas, Wisconsin's 115th Fighter Wing is an equal partner in our nation's defense as well as a cost-effective answer in our domestic response missions with highly trained personnel and equipment positioned to respond to support the civilians in our state and region in emergencies such as floods, tornadoes, snowstorms and other disasters with heavy equipment, civil engineering, emergency response medical professionals and mobile ER ready to respond to emergencies as needed, as well as supporting law enforcement agencies on a moment's notice; and

Whereas, the 115th FW's RC-26 supports civilian defense executing national missions in support of southwestern border operations, responds to national natural disasters such as Hurricane Ike and Hurricane Katrina, helps support law enforcement agencies to reduce the supply of drugs into our community and the RC-26 aircrew provides a perfect example of executing state and federal missions from base while stateside, between continuous overseas combat deployments; the 115th FW has aircraft, aircrew and maintenance and support personnel armed, positioned and ready to respond and deter threats to our homeland, having been effectively executing our country's highest priority mission of homeland defense 24/7/365 since September 11th; and

Whereas, the Air National Guard's three priorities to defend the homeland, support state and federal missions, and to do it better and more efficient are met daily with their motto: We are ready. We are relevant. We are accessible. We are Dedicated to Excellence!; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the assembly, That the Wisconsin assembly honors and congratulates the Wisconsin Air National Guard's 115th Fighter Wing on its 65 years of dedicated service to the people of Wisconsin and the United States of America.

Hi Sue,

Here is a version you can use to cut and paste as needed.

Hope that helps!

Tim:

Would it be possible to get the written speech that contained the history of the 115th? Rep. Hesselbein is interested in authoring a legislative citation, and she suggested that would have so much of the background that can be used in the drafting.
