Whereas, Pope Francis, born Jorge Mario Bergoglio born December 17, 1936 in Buenos Aires; and

Whereas, Pope Francis being elected by the papal conclave on March 13th 2013 as the first Jesuit and Latin American Pope choose for himself the papal name of Francis after St. Francis of Assisi in order to always be reminded of the poor; and

Whereas, since being elected Pope, Francis has set an example by choosing to forego the official papal residence at the Apostolic Palace; instead choosing to live at the Vatican guest house. Also, foregoing gold for silver in both his piscatory ring and pectoral cross; and

Whereas, since being elected Pope, Francis has continually brought to the forefront issues that are effecting the poor and disenfranchised of the world; and

Whereas, Pope Francis has set a charitable tone and inclusive example that peoples of all faiths can embrace; and

Whereas, Pope Francis has been recognized for his positive impact on the world and world issues has been named Time Magazines person of the year; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That the members of the Wisconsin legislature commend the achievements of Pope Francis and thank him for his advocacy for those who are in need or have been marginalized. "No one must say that they cannot be close to the poor because their own lifestyle demands more attention to other areas. This is an excuse commonly heard in academic, business or professional, and even ecclesial circles. While it is quite true that the essential vocation and mission of the lay faithful is to strive that earthly realities and all human activity may be transformed by the Gospel, none of us can think we are exempt from concern for the poor and for social justice..."
