Subject: RE: As per your request

Whereas, Tom Harden is a native of Middletown, Ohio and apprenticed as a skilled tradesman in his hometown's steel mill before becoming a teacher; and

Whereas, Tom became the fifth chancellor in the 40 year history of the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay on June 1, 2009; and

Whereas, Tom's career has spanned 35 years in higher education and prior to serving at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay he spent nine years as president of Clayton State University, was dean of the college of technology at Eastern Michigan University, chairman of the department of technology at Northern Kentucky University, and taught in both college and K-12 classrooms; and

Whereas, during Tom's tenure, the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay has seen a series of record graduating classes, a surge in enrollment of returning adult students, an increase in the number of students of color, development of new master's degrees in nursing and sustainability, and the continued expansion of cooperative agreements with area technical colleges; and

Whereas, Tom plans to transition from the chancellorship at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay in August 2014, to the teaching faculty of the Professional Program in Education in order to spend more time with his family, including his 11 grandchildren; and

Whereas, Tom and his wife Cathy have been very active members of the Green Bay community, along with the University and they will continue to stay involved; now therefore, be it

Resolved by the senate, the assembly concurring, That the members of the Wisconsin legislature do hereby honor Tom Harden for his many years of service and wish him great success in his future endeavors.

Jay,

Here's is a link to Chancellor Harden's announcement which should provide plenty of material for a legislative resolution. Dan Spielmann could answer any questions or provide any additional details.
