Hi Becky,

With respect to #3, please give me your feedback on whether you think that the following works:

Revise s. 295.58 91) (a) 3m. as follows: "That the proposed mining is likely to meet or exceed the requirements of municipal floodplain zoning ordinances applicable to the proposed mining under s. 295.607 (3) that have not been waived by the municipality in a local agreement under s. 295.443 (1m)." regulations that apply to municipal floodplain zoning ordinances contained in the uniform rules promulgated by the department for preparation and implementation of municipal floodplain zoning ordinances.

Thanks,
Larry

Per Larry - a local muni. can enact an ordinance that exempts a company from complying w/ an ordinance & this does not affect fed. flood insurance participation in fed. flood insurance program requires the state to decide to participate but a local can still give an exemption see Nicolet Minerals v. Town of Nashville
