Failure of claimants to provide requested information

Currently, DWD may require a claimant to answer questions relating to his or her UI benefit eligibility and to provide certain demographic information for auditing purposes. In addition, DWD must require each claimant to provide his or her social security number. A claimant is not eligible to receive benefits for any week in which the claimant fails to comply with a request by DWD for information and for any subsequent week until the claimant provides the requested information or satisfies that DWD that he or she had good cause for failure to provide the information. Generally, if a claimant later complies with a request or satisfies DWD that he or she had good cause for failure to comply, the claimant is eligible to receive benefits beginning with the week in which the failure occurred, if otherwise qualified. With respect to certain specific information, however, if a claimant later provides the requested information but does not have good cause for the initial failure to provide the information, the claimant is eligible only to receive benefits that become payable in the week in which the information is provided. Under this bill, if a claimant later complies with a request, the claimant is eligible to receive benefits beginning with the week in which the failure occurred, regardless of whether the claimant satisfies DWD that he or she had good cause for failure to

Representative Knodl:

1. This draft is the initial draft of your items 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 14 (all components), 15 (all components), 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 30, 31, 32, and 33 (Sussman memo to UIAC, 4/22/13). We are working on other items at this time and will be reviewing them with the DWD legal staff. Several items have been revised based upon your instructions on April 25. The other items will be added in successive redrafts when we have all the information we need to reduce them to draft format.

2. Upon consultation with DWD legal staff, we determined that the current language in s. 108.14 (7) (a), stats., is adequate to allow DWD to withhold its digest of LIRC decisions under proposed s. 108.14 (22) from public inspection.

3. Changes to the analysis item "Failure of claimants to provide requested information" will appear in the next version.

On 1-4, here is the language from fiscal to clarify the exact provision

Craig,

Bob Lang, Sean, and I went over the P7 draft. Based on the criteria we use to put the policy lists together for budget bills, we think the following provisions of the P7 draft would be considered non-fiscal policy:

1. Changing the due dates for reports by the DWD Secretary
2. Requiring DWD to develop a standard affidavit form
3. The provisions requiring training for persons serving on appeal tribunals
4. The provisions regarding late applications for business transfers
