Subject: Grandfathering amendment (AB 616)

Hi, Mary,

In addition to the AT&T amendment I submitted to you yesterday, Representative Larson would like the following amendment drafted to address the grandfathering issue:

We would like to grandfather the electricians described under 101.862(5), but include a provision that requires DSPS to issue a license to electricians who meet the age/experience requirements. Once rules establishing that license are in place, the electricians who have in the meantime been exempted under 101.862(5) (and who have not obtained a "regular" license) would be required to obtain the "grandfather license". They would not be masters (or journeymen), but they would continue to be exempt from 101.862(3).

I hope that makes sense, but please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Thanks!

Hi, Mary,

Thanks for working on this! The only further change we need here is to change the date from January 1, 1955, to January 1, 1956, both in 101.862(5)(a) (as renumbered by this amendment) and 101.862(5)(b).

Thanks again!

Matt
