Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill establishes limitations on the use of railroad crossings and on crossing railroad tracks by pedestrians. The bill also increases the penalty for railroad crossing violations by bicyclists.

Though there could be a limited impact on District Attorney offices due to the establishment of a penalty for pedestrians and the increase in penalty for bicyclists, prosecutors do not believe this bill, if enacted, will have a significant fiscal impact on their offices.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

Should this bill be enacted, prosecutors do not expect that this bill will have a long-term fiscal impact on their offices.
