ANNOUNCEMENTS, ADJOURNMENT
HONORS, AND REMARKS UNDER SPECIAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Harris Dodd, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of the 30th Street Industrial Corridor Corporation and the participants of the 2015 Unite Milwaukee Summit, an anti-violence summit she co-hosted. The 30th Street Industrial Corridor Corporation is a non-profit who works with businesses in Milwaukee to create jobs for community members. Over 150 community neighbors, organizations, and activists came together to brainstorm solutions to violence in their neighborhoods. They were inspiring. They were individuals from every walk of life, every age, every race, and every background. They understood that solutions to violence start on every block and in every neighborhood. Senator Harris Dodd thanks them for their participation in the summit and looks forward to working with them in the coming months to make Milwaukee safer for their children.

Senator Harris Dodd, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of three precious lives that were lost to violence over the last year in Milwaukee: Sierra Guyton, Laylah Petersen, and Bill Thao. 10 year-old Sierra was caught in the crossfire on a playground last May and lost her life. Laylah, at the young age of 5, was fatally shot in November while sitting on her grandfather's lap. Bill Thao was only 13 months old when he lost his life after bullets were fired into his home this past December. These children should not have died, and Senator Harris Dodd believes it is up to each and every one in this State Capitol to ensure that senseless violence does not take the lives of more children in our state. Her heart goes out to the families and loved ones of these precious children, who were taken prematurely from their families and this world before their time.

Senator Ringhand, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of the Whitewater Girls Basketball team who went undefeated and won the Division 3 State Championship over the weekend.

Senator Vukmir, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of two Milwaukee area high school girls basketball teams that brought home state titles this past weekend. Divine Savior Holy Angels won the Division 1 state championship over formerly unbeaten D.C. Everest by a score of 64-29. It is Divine Savior's first state title. The Pius XI Lady Popes were crowned the state champions of Division 2 with a convincing 54-36 win over Cedarburg. It's the Lady Popes' second state title, having won the Division 1 championship in 2010. Congratulations to all of these young female student-athletes. Your hard work and determination has helped your dreams come dream and given you memories that will last a lifetime.

Senator Wirch, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of a legend in Kenosha, Ralph Tenuta. His father started Tenuta's Delicatessen and Ralph runs it today with his son Chris. It is a family business that has been very successful competing with the big stores. They have Italian specialties and the famous have been through there. Rep. Paul Ryan brought President George W. Bush down 52nd Street and stopped at Tenuta's. Governors, Archbishops, local politicians have all stopped there and Ralph invites them to have a little something to eat in the back room when they come by. He is truly an example of how to run a small business. He has time for everyone who comes in to store, the old world charm of meeting with people and remembering their children who used to work there. It is an honor to adjourn in honor of whom quite frankly might be the most popular person in Kenosha, Ralph Tenuta.

Senator Harsdorf, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of Grace Nielson who is job shadowing her today. Grace is a Junior at River Falls High School and is interested in possibly running for office someday. She is passionate about making a difference in our world and there is no doubt that she will.

Senator Harsdorf, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in memory of Rex Bailey. Rex passed away earlier this month. Rex has been a dear friend and Senator Harsdorf has many fond memories of Rex and his wife helping in parades. Rex was passionate about learning and could often be found reading one of his many books, a favorite pastime.

Senator Harsdorf, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in memory of Ed Hanson. Ed was a neighbor farmer who passed away last week at the age of 92. Ed was a lifelong farmer and a true active environmentalist. He was passionate about protecting our lands for future generations and encouraged other farmers to do the same. Ed was blessed to pass away in the same room in the house he was born in.

Senator Harsdorf, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in memory of her Mom, Eloise Harsdorf, who passed away last week. Eloise was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother whose strong faith showed through her kindness and compassion for her family and others. She loved gardening and was known for her beautiful flowers both inside her home and out. Her many talents included playing the organ and later in life enjoying painting nature and wildlife scenes.

Senator Hansen, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of the Green Bay Phoenix Women's Basketball Team, who are League and Tournament Champions with a record of 28-4. They are playing in the NCAA Tournament Saturday morning against undefeated Princeton. Best of luck to a tremendous group of ladies, athletically and academically.

Senator LeMahieu, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of Lia Haile, of Manitowoc. Lia is a Wisconsin state honoree for the Prudential Spirit of Community Award. Lia was honored for her work creating the "Hopeful Hearts Club" which benefits the Hope House, a local homeless shelter.

Senator Marklein, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of Elyssa Vondra from Platteville High School who is participating in a senate job shadow today.

Senator Marklein, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of the Cuba City girls basketball team and coach Jeff Pustina for the 11th state championship title and the Mineral Point and Hillsboro boys basketball teams for making it to state.

Senator Taylor, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of the University of Wisconsin - Madison Men's Basketball team for earning a No. 1 seed, on March 15, 2015, in the NCAA tournament. Beating Michigan State 80-69, the victory made this group of elite Badger student athletes, the first team in program history to earn that distinction.

Senator Taylor, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of the Divine Saviors Holy Angels Girls Basketball Team, who on March 14, 2015, won the Girls Division 1 State Championship Game upsetting D.C. Everest, who came into the game undefeated. The "Dashers" finished their impressive season with a 26-2 record.

Senator Taylor, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of the Pius IX Girls Basketball Team, who on March 14, 2015, won the Girls Division 2 State Championship Game, against Cedarburg. The "Lady Popes" went undefeated to finish their remarkable season, with a record of 28-0.

Senator Taylor, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of the Young Coggs Prep High School, who has qualified for the WIAA's 100th State Boys Basketball Tournament to be played March 19-21, 2015.

Senator Nass, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of James W. Omdoll Jr., of Palmyra who passed away on March 5, 2015.

Senator Nass, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of David Hassi of Eagle who is job shadowing him this spring.

Senator Bewley, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of the Washburn Boys Basketball Team who will be playing in the State Basketball Tournament on Thursday. This is their first trip to State since 1984.

Senator Bewley, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of the Rice Lake Boys Basketball team who will be playing in the State Basketball Tournament Friday. This is their second consecutive year at State after finishing runners-up last year.

Senator Bewley, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of Megan Gustafson of South Shore High School. Megan finished her high school basketball career as Wisconsin's all-time leading scorer with over 3,200 points. She averaged just over 40 points a game this season and led her team to the State Tournament.

Senator Farrow, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of his son Andrew, who celebrated his 22nd birthday on March 12.

Senator Carpenter, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate adjourn in honor of the members of the Survival Coalition of Wisconsin Disability Organizations who visited the Capitol on March 17, 2015 to advocate for resources for independent living for those with disabilities.

ADJOURNMENT

Senator Fitzgerald, with unanimous consent, asked that the Senate stand adjourned until Thursday, March 19, 2015.

Adjourned.
