69.12 (1) If the state registrar cannot make an amendment to a vital record under s. 69.11 and a person with a direct and tangible interest in the vital record alleges that information on the vital record does not represent the actual facts in effect at the time the record was filed, the person may petition the circuit court of the county in which the event which is the subject of the vital record is alleged to have occurred. The petition shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the original vital record. If the court finds that the petitioner has established the actual facts of the event in effect when the record was filed, the clerk of court shall report the court's determination to the state registrar ~~on a form in the manner~~ prescribed by the state registrar, along with the fee required under s. 69.22 (5) (a) 2. Upon receipt of the report, the state registrar shall, if information as to the cause of death on ~~an original certificate of a death record~~ is changed or if information on a marriage certificate record concerning the identity of a parent of a party to a marriage is changed, act under sub. (4), or shall change the record under s. 69.11 (5) and if the record is not enabled in the state system of vital records, send a notice of the change the amended record to the local registrar who shall make the change in replace the record filed in his or her office. This subsection does not apply to a name change prohibited under s. 301.47.

SECTION 60. 69.12 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

69.12 (2) A court may not order amendment of the names of the parents of a registrant on a birth certificate record on the grounds of termination of parental rights or termination of custody.

SECTION 61. 69.12 (3) of the statutes is amended to read:

69.12 (3) The state registrar shall amend under s. 69.11 (5) an item on a birth certificate record as directed by an order under this section.

SECTION 62. 69.12 (4) of the statutes is amended to read:

69.12 (4) (a) If a court's determination under sub. (1) changes information as to the cause of death on ~~an original certificate of a death~~ record or changes information on a marriage certificate record concerning the identity of a parent of a party to the marriage and the court in accordance with the petition orders the creation of a new ~~certificate of death or marriage certificate~~ record, the state registrar shall do all of the following:

1. Prepare a new ~~certificate of death or a new marriage certificate~~ record, whichever is applicable. On a new ~~certificate of death~~ record, the state registrar shall omit the changed information, including the name of the physician, coroner or medical examiner who certified the cause of death and enter any other original and any new information, including the name of the judge and the date of the order, sign the new information, enter any notation of support in the margin of the record and insert a note that the ~~certificate of death~~ record has been amended. On a new marriage ~~certificate~~ record, the state registrar shall omit the changed information concerning the identity of a parent of a party to the marriage, enter the unchanged information from the original ~~certificate~~ record, and enter any new information included in the court order concerning the identity of a parent of a party to the marriage, but shall not note that the ~~certificate~~ record is amended.

2. Register a new ~~certificate of death or marriage certificate~~ record created under this subsection and impound the original ~~certificate of death or marriage certificate~~ record and all correspondence, affidavits, court orders, and other related materials and prohibit access except by court order or except by the state registrar for processing purposes.

3. Send a copy of any new ~~certificate of death or marriage certificate~~ record registered under this subsection to the local registrar who filed the original of the replaced

~~certificate of death or marriage certificate, if the record is not enabled in the state system of vital records.~~

(b) Upon receipt of the copy under par. (a) 3., the local registrar shall destroy his or her copy of the replaced ~~certificate of death or marriage certificate~~ record and file the new ~~certificate of death or marriage certificate~~ record.

SECTION 63. 69.12 (5) of the statutes is amended to read:

69.12 (5) A change in the marital status on the ~~certificate~~ record of birth may be requested under this section only if the marital status is inconsistent with father or husband information appearing on the ~~certificate of birth~~ record. This section may not be used to add or delete the name of a parent on the ~~certificate~~ record of birth or change the identity of either parent named on the ~~certificate of birth~~ record.

SECTION 72. 69.13 (intro.) and (1) of the statutes are amended to read:

69.13 Correction of facts misrepresented by informant for ~~certificate~~ record of birth. (intro.) The state registrar may, under an order issued by the circuit court of the county in which a birth occurred, correct information about the parent or the marital status of the mother on a ~~certificate~~ record of birth that is registered in this state if all of the following conditions apply:

(1) The correction may not be accomplished under s. 69.11, 69.12, or 69.15 because the disputed information was misrepresented by the informant during the preparation of the birth ~~certificate~~ record.

SECTION 64. 69.13 (2) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

69.13 (2) (a) A petition for correction filed by a person with a direct and tangible interest in the ~~certificate of birth~~ record.

SECTION 65. 69.13 (2) (b) 4. of the statutes is amended to read:

69.13 (2) (b) 4. If relevant to the correction sought, a certified copy of a marriage document, ~~a certified copy of a certificate of divorce or annulment~~ record, or a final divorce decree that indicates that the mother was not married to the person listed as her husband at any time during the pregnancy, a legal name change order, or any other legal document that clarifies the disputed information.

SECTION 66. 69.13 (2) (b) 5. of the statutes is amended to read:

69.13 (2) (b) 5. A statement signed by the ~~certificate~~ record of birth informant or the petitioner acknowledging that the disputed information was misrepresented.

SECTION 67. 69.14 (1) (a) 1. of the statutes is renumbered 69.14 (1) (a) and amended to read:

69.14 (1) (a) Filing deadline. ~~Except as provided under subd. 2., a certificate~~ A record of birth for every birth that occurs in this state shall be filed within 5 days after the birth with the state registrar, who shall register the birth under this subchapter ~~and shall make a copy of~~ the certificate of birth available to the registration district in which the birth occurred and the registration district in which the mother of the registrant resided at the time of the birth.

SECTION 68. 69.14 (1) (a) 2. and 3. of the statutes are repealed.

SECTION 69. 69.14 (1) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

69.14 (1) (b) Accuracy. Either parent of a child who is the subject of a birth certificate record, or, if neither parent is available, another person with knowledge of the facts of the birth, shall attest to the accuracy of the personal data entered on the certificate record in time to permit the filing of the certificate record within 5 days after the birth.

SECTION 70. 69.14 (1) (c) (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:

69.14 (1) (c) Filing party. (intro.) A birth certificate record shall be prepared and filed by the following:

SECTION 71. 69.14 (1) (d), (e), (f), (g) and (h) of the statutes are amended to read:

69.14 (1) (d) Place of birth. 1. On a birth certificate record the place of birth shall be the place where the placenta is removed except as provided under subd. 2.

2. If a birth occurs in a conveyance within the United States and the birth child is first removed from the conveyance in this state, the birth shall be filed in this state and the place where the birth child is first removed from the conveyance shall be the place of birth on the birth certificate record. If a birth occurs on a moving conveyance while in international waters or air space or in a foreign country or its air space and the birth child is first removed from the conveyance in this state, a birth certificate record for the child shall be filed in this state and the place of birth on the birth certificate record shall be the actual place of birth as determined by the filing party.

(e) Father's name. 1. If the mother of a registrant under this section was married at any time from the conception to the birth of the registrant, the name of the husband of the mother shall be entered on the birth certificate record as the legal father of the registrant. The name of the father entered under this subdivision may not be changed except by a proceeding under ch. 767.

2. If the mother was not married at any time from the conception to the birth of a registrant under this section, no name of any alleged father of the registrant may be entered as the father on the birth certificate record except as provided under s. 69.15 (3). If under this subdivision the name of the father of the registrant of a birth certificate record is omitted from the certificate record, no other information about the father may be entered on the certificate record.

(f) Registrant's name. 1. a. Except as provided under subd. 1. b., if the mother of a registrant of a birth certificate record under this section is married to the father of the registrant at any time from the conception to the birth of the registrant, the given name and surname which the mother and father of the registrant enter for the registrant on the birth certificate record shall be the given name and surname filed and registered on the birth certificate record.

b. If the mother of a registrant of a birth certificate record under this section is married to the father of the registrant at any time from the conception to the birth of the registrant and the mother is separated or divorced from the father of the registrant at the time of birth, the given name and surname which the parent of the registrant with actual custody enters for the registrant on the birth certificate record shall be the given name and surname filed and registered on the birth certificate record, except that if a court has granted legal custody of the registrant, the given name and surname which the person with legal custody enters for the registrant on the birth certificate record shall be the given name and surname filed and registered on the birth certificate record.

c. If the mother of a registrant of a birth certificate record under this section is not married to the father of the registrant at any time from the conception to the birth of the registrant, the given name and surname which the mother of the registrant enters for the registrant on the birth certificate record shall be the given name and surname filed and registered on the birth certificate record, except that if a court has granted legal custody of the registrant, the given name and surname which the person with legal custody enters for the registrant on the birth certificate record shall be the given name and surname filed and registered on the birth certificate record.

2. If no surname has been entered for a registrant within 5 days after the registrant's birth, the filing party shall file a birth certificate record for the registrant without entering a surname on the birth certificate record. The state registrar and any local registrar may not issue any certified copy of the birth certificate record until a surname is entered under this paragraph.

(g) Birth by artificial insemination. If the registrant of a birth certificate record under this section is born as a result of artificial insemination under the requirements of s. 891.40, the husband of the woman shall be considered the father of the registrant on the birth certificate record. If the registrant is born as a result of artificial insemination which does not satisfy the requirements of s. 891.40, the information about the father of the registrant shall be omitted from the registrant's birth certificate record.

(h) Surrogate mother. If the registrant of a birth certificate record under this section is born to a surrogate mother, information about the surrogate mother shall be entered on the birth certificate record and the information about the father shall be omitted from the birth certificate record. If a court determines parental rights over the registrant, the clerk of court shall report the court's determination to the state registrar on a form prescribed by the state registrar, along with the fee required under s. 69.22. Upon receipt of the report, the state registrar shall prepare and register a new birth certificate record for the registrant under s. 69.15 (6) and send ~~a copy notice~~ of the new certificate record to the local registrar who filed the original certificate record. Upon receipt of the ~~copy notice~~, the local registrar shall destroy his or her copy of the replaced certificate and ~~file the new certificate record~~.

SECTION 72. 69.14 (2) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

69.14 (2) (a) Registration 6 to 365 days after birth. If a birth certificate record is filed 6 to 365 days after the date of birth, the filing party shall ~~use the form used~~ proceed in the manner prescribed for birth certificates records filed under sub. (1). Before registering the certificate record, the state registrar may require additional evidence in support of the facts of birth and an explanation of why the birth certificate record was not filed under sub. (1). If a birth certificate record filed under this subsection is signed by a person other than the person attending the birth or the person managing the institution where the birth occurred or its medical records, the state registrar may require a notarized statement of why the certificate record was not filed under sub. (1).

SECTION 73. 69.14 (2) (b) 1. and 2. (intro.), 3. a., b. and d., 4. (intro.), 5., 6., 7. (intro.) and 8. (intro.) and a. of the statutes are amended to read:

69.14 (2) (b) 1. If more than 365 days have elapsed since the birth of a person born in this state and a certificate record of the birth has not been filed in this state, such person or the parent or guardian of the person, if the person is living, may request that the state registrar register a birth certificate record for the person under this paragraph.

2. (intro.) Any person requesting a birth certificate record under this paragraph shall establish the following facts by evidence documented under subd. 3.:

3. a. As evidence of the name, date and place of birth of a registrant for whom a birth certificate record is requested under this paragraph, the person requesting the birth certificate record shall present at least 2 pieces of documentary evidence for each item if the record is filed prior to 7 years after the date of birth or at least 3 pieces of documentary evidence for each item if the record is filed 7 years or more after the date of birth. Only one piece of documentary evidence per item may be an affidavit of personal knowledge.

b. As evidence of the parents of a registrant for whom a birth certificate record is requested under this paragraph, the person requesting the birth certificate record shall present at least one document which is not an affidavit of personal knowledge.

d. Any document presented under this subdivision which is not an affidavit of personal knowledge shall have been established at least 10 years prior to the date the birth certificate record is requested under this paragraph or shall have been established before the registrant's 10th birthday.

4. (intro.) If the registrant of a certificate record filed under this paragraph is 18 years of age or over and is competent to sign and swear to the accuracy of its facts, the registrant shall sign the certificate record and swear to the accuracy of its facts before an official authorized to administer oaths. If the registrant is under 18 years of age or is not competent to sign and swear to the accuracy of the facts of such certificate record, a person shall sign the certificate record and swear to the accuracy of its facts as follows:

5. The state registrar may deny a request for a birth certificate record under this paragraph. If the state registrar approves a request for a birth certificate record under this paragraph, he or she shall indicate plainly on the face of the certificate record that the certificate record has been registered under this paragraph and the date the certificate record is registered and shall ~~send a copy of the certificate~~ make available the record to the local registrar under s. 69.03 (11). ~~The local registrar shall file the certificate.~~

6. If the state registrar denies a request for registration of a birth certificate record under this subsection, the person making the request may file a petition with the circuit court of the alleged county of birth for an order establishing a record of the date and place of the birth and the parentage of the person who would be the registrant. If the court finds that such person was born in this state, the court shall make findings as to the place and date of birth, parentage, and any other required finding and shall, in the manner prescribed by the state registrar, issue an order; ~~on a form prescribed and furnished by the state registrar, to register a birth certificate record for the person. The order which~~ shall include the birth date to be registered, a description of the evidence presented, and the date of the court's action.

7. (intro.) On any birth certificate record registered under this paragraph, the state registrar or his or her designated representative shall describe each document submitted under subd. 3. The abstract for each document shall include:

8. (intro.) On any birth certificate record registered under this paragraph, the state registrar or his or her designated representative shall certify by his or her signature that:

a. No other birth certificate record is on file for the registrant.

SECTION 74. 69.14 (3) (a) (intro.) and 6. of the statutes are amended to read:

69.14 (3) (a) (intro.) Any person who assumes custody of a live born infant of unknown parentage shall file a birth certificate record for the infant within 5 days after assuming custody and shall file the birth certificate record with the following information:

6. The name, address and signature of the person with whom the registrant has been placed for care. The information under this subdivision shall be entered in the item on the birth certificate record where information on the attendant at birth is required.

SECTION 75. 69.14 (3) (b) of the statutes is repealed.

SECTION 76. 69.14 (3) (c) of the statutes is amended to read:

69.14 (3) (c) If at any time after a birth certificate record is filed for a registrant under this subsection a birth certificate record filed for the registrant at the time of birth of the registrant is found or the registrant is adopted and the adoptive parents sign a birth record giving their names as the adoptive parents, the state registrar shall impound the birth certificate record filed under this subsection and prohibit access except by court order or except by the state registrar for processing purposes.

SECTION 77. 69.15 (title), (1) (intro.) and (b), (2) (a) (intro.), 2., 5. and 6., (c) and (d) 1. (intro.), a., c., d. and e., 2. and 3., (3) (a) (intro.), 1., 2., 3. and 4., (b) 1., 3. and 4. (intro.), (c) and (d), (3m) (a) 2. and 3. and (b), (4) (a) and (b), (4m) (a) 1. and (b), (5) and (6) (title), (a), (b) and (c) of the statutes are amended to read:

69.15 (title) Changes of fact on birth certificate records. (1) BIRTH CERTIFICATE RECORD INFORMATION CHANGES. (intro.) The state registrar may change information on a birth certificate record registered in this state which was correct at the time the birth certificate record was filed under a court or administrative order issued in this state, in another state or in Canada or under the valid order of a court of any federally recognized Indian tribe, band or nation if:

(b) A clerk of court or, for a paternity action, a clerk of court or county child support agency under s. 59.53 (5), sends the state registrar a certified report of an order of a court in this state ~~on a form supplied in the method prescribed~~ by the state registrar or, in the case of any other order, the state registrar receives a certified copy of the order and the proper fee under s. 69.22.

(2) (a) (intro.) Except as provided under par. (b), if the state registrar receives an order under sub. (1) which provides for an adoption, the state registrar shall prepare, under sub. (6), a new certificate record for the subject of the adoption unless the adoptive parents or the subject of the adoption requests, under s. 48.94 (1), that no new certificate record be prepared. If the order is from a court in this state, the order shall include a certified copy of the original birth certificate record registered for the subject of the adoption. The new certificate record shall show:

2. The date and place of birth as transcribed from the original certificate record. The date and place on the original certificate record may not be changed by the court.

5. The filing date on the original certificate record.

6. Any other information necessary to complete the new certificate record.

(c) If the state registrar determines that the registrant of a birth certificate record was adopted without a change in the registrant's birth certificate record under par. (a) or (b), the state registrar shall obtain a copy of the court order which provided for the adoption, if available, and shall prepare, under sub. (6), a new certificate record for the registrant.

(d) 1. (intro.) A court shall order the state registrar to prepare for the subject of a birth certificate record a new birth certificate record based on the information on the subject's original birth certificate record if all of the following circumstances apply:

a. The subject of the birth certificate record petitions the court for a new birth certificate record.

c. The subject did not have the opportunity under par. (a), at the time of the adoption, to request that no new birth certificate record be prepared.

d. The subject knows the identity of each birth parent who is named on his or her original birth certificate record.

e. Each birth parent who is alive and who is named on the subject's original birth certificate record does not object to the restoration of the information on the subject's original birth certificate record.

2. If the court grants an order under subd. 1., the state registrar shall prepare under sub. (6) a new birth certificate record using all of the information contained on the original birth certificate record, except for the adoptee's given name at birth, if different.

3. After preparing a new birth certificate record under subd. 2., the state registrar shall follow the procedure under sub. (6) (b) to impound all other birth certificate records of the subject except the subject's new birth certificate record.

(3) (a) (intro.) If the state registrar receives an order under sub. (1) which establishes paternity or determines that the man whose name appears on a registrant's birth certificate record is not the father of the registrant, the state registrar shall do the following, as appropriate:

1. Prepare under sub. (6) a new certificate record omitting the father's name if the order determines that the man whose name appears on a registrant's birth certificate record is not the father of the registrant and if there is no adjudicated father.

2. Prepare under sub. (6) a new certificate record for the subject of a paternity action changing the name of the father if the name of the adjudicated father is different than the name of the man on the birth certificate record.

3. Except as provided under subd. 4., insert the name of the adjudicated father on the original birth certificate record if the name of the father was omitted on the original certificate record.

4. If the order provides for a change in the child's given name or surname or both, enter the name indicated on a new birth certificate record prepared under subd. 1. or 2. or on the original birth certificate record under subd.

3. except that if the surname of a child under 7 years of age is changed, the state registrar shall prepare a new certificate record under sub. (6).

(b) 1. Except as provided under par. (c), if the state registrar receives a statement acknowledging paternity on a form in the manner prescribed by the state registrar and signed by both of the birth parents of a child determined to be a marital child under s. 767.803, a certified copy of the parents' marriage certificate record, and the fee required under s. 69.22 (5) (b) 1., the state registrar shall insert the name of the husband from the marriage certificate record as the father if the name of the father was omitted on the original birth certificate record. The state registrar shall include ~~on the form~~ for the acknowledgment the items in s. 767.813 (5g).

3. Except as provided under par. (c), if the state registrar receives a statement acknowledging paternity on a form in the method prescribed by the state registrar and signed by both parents, neither of whom was under the age of 18 years when the form was signed, along with the fee under s. 69.22, the state registrar shall insert the name of the father under subd. 1. The state registrar shall mark the certificate record to show that the form acknowledgement is on file. The form acknowledgement shall be available to the department of children and families or a county child support agency under s. 59.53 (5) pursuant to the program responsibilities under s. 49.22 or to any other person with a direct and tangible interest in the record. The state registrar shall include ~~on the form~~ for the acknowledgment the information in s. 767.805 and the items in s. 767.813 (5g).

4. (intro.) If a registrant has not reached the age of 18 years and if any of the following indicate, in a statement acknowledging paternity under subd. 1. or 3., that the given name or surname, or both, of the registrant should be changed on the birth certificate record, the state registrar shall enter the name indicated on the birth certificate record without a court order:

(c) If the state registrar is required to enter a new surname or a new given name on a birth certificate record under par. (b) 4. and the registrant has not reached the age of 7 years, the state registrar shall make a new certificate record under sub. (6).

(d) The ~~form~~ method prescribed by the state registrar for acknowledging paternity shall require that the social security number of each of the registrant's parents ~~signing the form~~ be provided.

(3m) (a) 2. The person rescinding the statement files with the state registrar ~~a document~~ a rescission in the method prescribed by the state registrar ~~for rescinding a statement acknowledging paternity under sub. (3) (b) 3.~~

3. The person rescinding the statement files ~~the document~~ a rescission in the method prescribed under subd. 2. before the day on which a court or circuit court commissioner makes an order in an action affecting the family involving the man who signed the statement and the child who is the subject of the statement or before 60 days elapse after the statement was filed, whichever occurs first.

(b) If the state registrar, within the time required under par. (a) 3., receives a ~~document~~ rescission in the method prescribed by the state registrar ~~for rescinding a statement acknowledging paternity under sub. (3) (b) 3.,~~ along with the proper fee under s. 69.22, the state registrar shall prepare under sub. (6) a new certificate record omitting the father's name if it was inserted under sub. (3) (b).

(4) (a) If the state registrar receives an order under sub. (1) which provides for a name change, the state registrar shall change the name on the original birth certificate record.

(b) Any person with a direct and tangible interest in a birth certificate record registered in this state may petition a court to change the name and sex of the registrant on the certificate record due to a surgical sex-change procedure. If the state registrar receives an order which provides for such a change the state registrar shall change the name and sex on the original certificate record, except that if the court orders the state registrar to prepare a new certificate record the state registrar shall prepare a new certificate record under sub. (6). This subsection does not apply to a name change prohibited under s. 301.47.

(4m) (a) 1. The request for the change is received ~~to~~ by the state registrar, in writing, on a form approved in the manner prescribed by the state registrar.

(b) If the conditions under par. (a) 1. to 4. are met, the state registrar shall change the registrant's name on the registrant's birth certificate record. The state registrar is not required to issue a new birth certificate under this paragraph.

(5) NEW CERTIFICATE RECORD FOR A PERSON WITHOUT ANY CERTIFICATE RECORD. If no birth-certificate record has been registered for any person who is more than 365 days old and who is entitled to a new certificate record under this section, and if the date and place of birth of the person have not been determined by a court, the state registrar shall register a birth certificate record for the individual under s. 69.14 (2) (b) before preparing a new certificate record under sub. (6).

(6) (title) PREPARATION OF NEW CERTIFICATES RECORDS. (a) The state registrar shall prepare a new birth certificate record ~~that under this section on the form in use at the time the original certificate was filed.~~ The state registrar shall include ~~on a new certificate~~ the date of creation of the new certificate record ~~and shall sign it.~~ The state registrar shall type ~~on the new certificate~~ any other legible signature ~~on the original certificate.~~

(b) The state registrar shall register a new certificate record created under this section and shall impound the original certificate record or the certificate record registered under sub. (5) and all correspondence, affidavits, court orders and other related materials and prohibit access except by court order or except by the state registrar for processing purposes or except when authorized under ss. 48.432 and 48.433. The state registrar shall send ~~a copy~~ notice of any new certificate record registered under this section to the local registrar who filed the original of the ~~replaced certificate record~~. Upon receipt of the ~~copy notification~~, the local registrar shall destroy his or her copy of the ~~replaced certificate~~ and file the new certificate original record.

(c) If the state registrar changes a birth certificate record on file or registered under this section instead of preparing a new certificate record, the state registrar shall make the change under s. 69.11 (5) and ~~shall send a notice of the change to the local registrar who filed the original of the changed certificate~~. Upon receipt of the notice, the local registrar shall change his or her copy of the changed certificate.

SECTION 78. 69.16 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

69.16 (2) If a person has married in this state, at least 365 days have elapsed since the marriage and no marriage document is on file, a person with a direct and tangible interest in having a marriage document registered may petition the circuit court of the county in which the marriage is alleged to have occurred. If the court finds that the petitioner has established the fact of the marriage required on the marriage document, except for the information under s. 69.20 (2), the clerk of the court shall report the court's determination to the state registrar ~~on a form~~ in the manner prescribed by the state registrar, along with the fee required under s. 69.22. Upon receipt of the report, the state registrar shall register the marriage document and ~~send a copy of the document~~ make the record available to the local registrar under s. 69.03 (11). ~~The local registrar shall file the document.~~

SECTION 79. 69.17 of the statutes is amended to read:

69.17 Divorce report. At the end of every biweekly period, the clerk of any court which conducts divorce proceedings under ch. 767 shall forward to the state registrar, ~~on a form supplied in the manner prescribed~~ by the state registrar, a report of every divorce or annulment of marriage granted during the biweekly period. The ~~form~~ supplied by the state registrar shall require that the social security numbers of the parties to the divorce or annulment and the social security number of any child of the parties be provided.

SECTION 80. 69.18 (1) (b) (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:

69.18 (1) (b) (intro.) Any person who moves a corpse under par. (a) shall file a certificate of death record for the corpse under this subsection ~~on a form~~ in the manner prescribed by the state registrar under any one of the following circumstances:

SECTION 81. 69.18 (1) (bm) (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:

69.18 (1) (bm) (intro.) A person required to file a ~~certificate of death record~~ under par. (b) shall obtain the information required for the certificate of death record from the next of kin or the best qualified person or source available. The person filing the certificate of death record shall enter his or her signature on the certificate record and include his or her address and the date of signing and shall present or mail the certificate record, within 24 hours after being notified of the death, to the physician, coroner or medical examiner responsible for completing and signing the medical certification. Within 2 days after receipt of the medical certification, the person filing the certificate of death record shall mail or present the certificate of death record in:

69.18 (1) (d) A hospital, nursing home, or hospice may not release a corpse to any person under par. (a) unless the person presents a notice of removal ~~on a form~~ in the manner prescribed by the state registrar, in duplicate, to the administrator of the hospital, nursing home, or hospice. The administrator shall retain one copy and forward the other copy to the local registrar of the registration district in which the hospital, nursing home, or hospice is located.

SECTION 85. 69.18 (1m) (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:

69.18 (1m) FORMAT. (intro.) Beginning on ~~January 1, 2003~~ September 1, 2013, a certificate record of death shall consist of the following parts:

SECTION 86. 69.18 (1m) (a) 3. of the statutes is repealed.

SECTION 87. 69.18 (1m) (a) 5. of the statutes is amended to read:

69.18 (1m) (a) 5. The dates of certification and filing of the certificate of death record.

SECTION 88. 69.18 (1m) (b) 2. of the statutes is amended to read:

69.18 (1m) (b) 2. Information on final disposition, manner, and cause of death.

SECTION 89. 69.18 (2) (a), (b), (d) 1. and 2., (e) and (f) 1. and 3. and (3) (a) of the statutes are amended to read:

69.18 (2) (a) ~~On the form for~~ For a certificate of death record, in the manner prescribed by the state registrar under sub. (1) (b), the state registrar shall provide for a medical certification to be completed under this subsection.

(b) If a person under the care of a physician dies from the illness or condition for which the care is given and a coroner or medical examiner does not certify the cause of death under par. (d) 1., the physician shall complete and sign a medical certification for the death under par. (f) and mail the medical certification within 5 days after the pronouncement of death or present the medical certification to the person responsible for filing the death certificate record under sub. (1) within 6 days after the pronouncement of death.

(d) 1. Except as provided under par. (e), if a death is the subject of a coroner's or medical examiner's determination under s. 979.01 or 979.03, the coroner or medical examiner or a physician supervised by a coroner or medical examiner in the county where the event which caused the death occurred shall complete and sign the medical certification for the death and mail the death certificate record within 5 days after the pronouncement of death or present the certificate record to the person responsible for filing the death certificate record under sub. (1) within 6 days after the pronouncement of death.

SECTION 137. 770.12 (3) of the statutes is amended to read:

770.12 (3) Upon receiving a completed, signed, and notarized notice of termination of domestic partnership, the affidavit under sub. (1) (b) if required, and the fee under s. 770.17, the county clerk shall issue to the domestic partner filing the notice of termination a certificate of termination of domestic partnership. The domestic partner shall submit the ~~certificate~~ record of termination of domestic partnership to the register of deeds of the county in which the declaration of domestic partnership is recorded. The register of deeds shall record the ~~certificate~~ record and forward the original to the state registrar of vital statistics records.

SECTION 138. 786.36 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

786.36 (2) Except as provided in sub. (2m), the order shall be entered at length upon the records of the court and a certified copy of the record shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county, who shall make an entry in a book to be kept by the register. The fee for recording a certified copy is the fee specified under s. 59.43 (2) (ag). If the person whose name is changed or established was born or married in this state, the clerk of the court shall send to the state registrar of vital statistics records, on a form designed by the state registrar of vital statistics records, an abstract of the record, duly certified, accompanied by the fee prescribed in s. 69.22, which fee the clerk of court shall charge to and collect from the petitioner. The state registrar of vital statistics records shall then correct the birth record, marriage record or both, and direct the register of deeds and local registrar to make similar corrections on their records.

SECTION 139. 786.36 (2m) (a) and (b) of the statutes are amended to read:

786.36 (2m) (a) Except as provided in par. (b), if the court determines that, pursuant to s. 786.37 (4), publication of the petition is not required, all records related to the petitioner's name change shall be confidential and are exempt from disclosure under s. 19.35 (1). The court shall transmit to the register of deeds a form that states the petitioner's former name and states that the new name is confidential and may not be disclosed except pursuant to par. (b). The fee for recording a certified copy is the fee specified under s. 59.43 (2) (ag). If the person whose name is changed or established was born in this state, the clerk of the court shall send to the state registrar of vital statistics, on a form designed by the state registrar of vital statistics records, an abstract of the record, duly certified, accompanied by the fee prescribed in s. 69.22, which fee the clerk of court shall charge to and collect from the petitioner. The state registrar of vital statistics records shall then correct the birth record and, upon request by the petitioner and payment by the petitioner of the fees required under s. 69.22, issue to the petitioner the number of certified copies of the corrected birth record requested by the petitioner.

(b) Notwithstanding ss. 69.20 and 69.21, information that is confidential under this subsection may not be disclosed by the state registrar of vital statistics records, the register of deeds, or a local registrar except pursuant to a court order. A court may order disclosure of confidential information upon good cause shown and upon determining that the safety of the petitioner is not jeopardized by disclosure.
