ASSEMBLY SUBSTITUTE AMENDMENT 2,
TO SENATE BILL 54

February 22, 2018 - Offered by Representatives SANFELIPPO, BORN, NYGREN, VOS, JACQUE, TITTL, SCHRAA, VORPAGEL, ZIMMERMAN, SPIROS, KRUG, SUMMERFIELD, STEFFEN and KNODL.

1 AN ACT to amend 20.866 (2) (ux), 302.113 (8m) (a), 302.114 (8m) (a), 304.06 (3) 2 and 973.10 (2) (intro.); and to create 978.09 of the statutes; relating to:
3 recommendation to revoke parole, probation, and extended supervision if a 4 person is charged with a felony or violent misdemeanor; increasing positions in 5 district attorney offices; granting bonding authority; and making an 6 appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

7 SECTION 1c. 20.866 (2) (ux) of the statutes, as affected by 2017 Wisconsin Act
8 59, is amended to read:
9 20.866 (2) (ux) Corrections; correctional facilities. From the capital 10 improvement fund, a sum sufficient for the department of corrections to acquire, 11 construct, develop, enlarge, or improve adult and juvenile correctional facilities. The

1 state may contract public debt in an amount not to exceed $926,679,900
2 $1,276,679,900 for this purpose.

3 SECTION 1p. 302.113 (8m) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

4 302.113 (8m) (a) Every person released to extended supervision under this
5 section remains in the legal custody of the department. If the department alleges
6 that any condition or rule of extended supervision has been violated by the person,
7 the department may take physical custody of the person for the investigation of the 8 alleged violation. If the person is charged with a felony or a violent misdemeanor,
9 as defined in s. 941.29 (1g) (b), the department shall recommend that the person's 10 extended supervision be revoked, except that the department may make a different
11 recommendation if the person is participating in a substance abuse treatment
12 program. The department may revise its recommendation to revoke if the charges
13 are subsequently dismissed or if the person is found not guilty of the crime.

14 SECTION 1q. 302.114 (8m) (a) of the statutes is amended to read:

15 302.114 (8m) (a) Every person released to extended supervision under this 16 section remains in the legal custody of the department. If the department alleges
17 that any condition or rule of extended supervision has been violated by the person, 18 the department may take physical custody of the person for the investigation of the 19 alleged violation. If the person is charged with a felony or a violent misdemeanor,
20 as defined in s. 941.29 (1g) (b), the department shall recommend that the person's 21 extended supervision be revoked, except that the department may make a different
22 recommendation if the person is participating in a substance abuse treatment
23 program. The department may revise its recommendation to revoke if the charges
24 are subsequently dismissed or if the person is found not guilty of the crime.

25 SECTION 2. 304.06 (3) of the statutes is amended to read:

1 304.06 (3) Every paroled prisoner remains in the legal custody of the 2 department unless otherwise provided by the department. If the department alleges 3 that any condition or rule of parole has been violated by the prisoner, the department 4 may take physical custody of the prisoner for the investigation of the alleged 5 violation. If the department is satisfied that any condition or rule of parole has been 6 violated it shall afford the prisoner such administrative hearings as are required by 7 law. If the person is charged with a felony or a violent misdemeanor, as defined in 8 s. 941.29 (1g) (b), the department shall recommend that the person's parole be 9 revoked, except that the department may make a different recommendation if the 10 person is participating in a substance abuse treatment program. The department
11 may revise its recommendation to revoke if the charges are subsequently dismissed 12 or if the person is found not guilty of the crime. Unless waived by the parolee, the 13 final administrative hearing shall be held before a hearing examiner from the 14 division of hearings and appeals in the department of administration who is licensed 15 to practice law in this state. The hearing examiner shall enter an order revoking or 16 not revoking parole. Upon request by either party, the administrator of the division 17 of hearings and appeals shall review the order. The hearing examiner may order that 18 a deposition be taken by audiovisual means and allow the use of a recorded 19 deposition under s. 967.04 (7) to (10). If the parolee waives the final administrative 20 hearing, the secretary of corrections shall enter an order revoking or not revoking
21 parole. If the examiner, the administrator upon review, or the secretary in the case 22 of a waiver finds that the prisoner has violated the rules or conditions of parole, the 23 examiner, the administrator upon review, or the secretary in the case of a waiver, 24 may order the prisoner returned to prison to continue serving his or her sentence, or 25 to continue on parole. If the prisoner claims or appears to be indigent, the

1 department shall refer the prisoner to the authority for indigency determinations 2 specified under s. 977.07 (1).

3 SECTION 3. 973.10 (2) (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:

4 973.10 (2) (intro.) If a probationer violates the conditions of probation, the 5 department of corrections may initiate a proceeding before the division of hearings
6 and appeals in the department of administration. If the person is charged with a 7 felony or a violent misdemeanor, as defined in s. 941.29 (1g) (b), the department shall 8 recommend that the person's probation be revoked, except that the department may 9 make a different recommendation if the person is participating in a substance abuse 10 treatment program. The department may revise its recommendation to revoke if the 11 charges are subsequently dismissed or if the person is found not guilty of the crime.

12 Unless waived by the probationer, a hearing examiner for the division shall conduct 13 an administrative hearing and enter an order either revoking or not revoking 14 probation. Upon request of either party, the administrator of the division shall 15 review the order. If the probationer waives the final administrative hearing, the 16 secretary of corrections shall enter an order either revoking or not revoking 17 probation. If probation is revoked, the department shall:

18 SECTION 4m. 978.09 of the statutes is created to read:

19 978.09 Reports on actions regarding recommendations to revoke
20 release. (1) In a county having a population of 750,000 or more, the district attorney
21 office shall annually report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature
