Description the expiration of administrative rules

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

The bill specifies that each chapter of the Wisconsin Administrative Code will expire after 7 years unless readopted by the agency with the approval of the Joint Committee for Review of Administrative Rules (JCRAR). If JCRAR does not object to an agency's rule re-adoption proposal, it is considered readopted without further action. On the other hand, any JCRAR objection to a rule re-adoption proposal means that the rule chapter will expire unless the agency promulgates a new rule via the standard rule-making process.

The fiscal impact to the Department of Natural Resources is considered indeterminate since it predicated on whether JCRAR approves or objects to a DNR's rule re-adoption proposal. Opposition to re-adoption will require additional, indeterminate staff time to promulgate a new rule using the rule-making process.
