AN ACT to repeal 12.13 (1) (f) of the statutes; relating to: allowing an elector to show his or her marked ballot.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, an elector who shows his or her marked ballot to any person or places a mark upon the ballot so it is identifiable as his or her ballot is guilty of a Class I felony. This bill eliminates that prohibition.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 12.13 (1) (f) of the statutes is repealed.
