1 AN ACT to amend 165.25 (10) of the statutes; relating to: reports on restitution
2 to crime victims.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill changes the information that the Department of Justice must include in its report to the Department of Administration and the Joint Committee on Finance regarding restitution received by crime victims. Under the bill, the report must specify the total number of individuals who received restitution instead of identifying the individuals who received restitution and must provide the total amount paid to all recipients instead of providing the amount paid to each recipient.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
