The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

4             SECTION 1. 84.10395 of the statutes is created to read:
5             84.10395 Staff Sergeant Daniel D. Busch Memorial Highway. (1) The 6             department shall designate and, subject to sub. (2), mark the route of STH 33 7             commencing at the eastern border of the city of Portage and proceeding westerly to 8             the Columbia County line as the “Staff Sergeant Daniel D. Busch Memorial 9             Highway” in honor and recognition of Staff Sergeant Daniel D. Busch.
10            (2) Upon receipt of sufficient contributions from interested parties, including 11            any county, city, village, or town, to cover the costs of erecting and maintaining

ASSEMBLY BILL 77*SECTION 1

1 markers along the route specified in sub. (1) to clearly identify the designation of the 2 route as the “Staff Sergeant Daniel D. Busch Memorial Highway,” the department 3 shall erect and maintain the markers. No state funds, other than from the receipt of 4 contributions under this subsection, may be expended for the erection or 5 maintenance of the markers.

6 SECTION 2. Nonstatutory provisions.

7 (1) The legislature finds all of the following:

8 (a) Staff Sergeant Daniel D. Busch, a United States army ranger and member 9 of the United States Army 1st Special Forces Operational Detachment-Delta (Delta 10 Force), was posthumously awarded the Silver Star for gallantry in action against a 11 hostile enemy force on October 3, 1993, while serving as a member of Task Force 12 Ranger during operations in support of United Nations Operation in Somalia II in 13 Mogadishu, Somalia.

14 (b) During Operation Gothic Serpent, when the MH-60 helicopter he was in 15 was shot down by enemy fire, SSG Dan Busch immediately exited the aircraft, took 16 control of a key intersection, and provided suppressive fire with his M249 automatic 17 weapon against overwhelming enemy forces, thus, protecting the lives of and 18 ensuring the survival of his fellow team members. It was during this battle that SSG 19 Busch received his fatal wound and later died at a medical aid station. In his 20 heroism, SSG Busch left behind his young wife, Traci, and his infant child, Mitchell.

21 (c) Dan Busch was known by family, friends, and his community as a devoutly
22 religious man who valued family and friends. He was an avid and renowned 23 outdoorsman who excelled at hunting, fishing, and trapping in the Caledonia area 24 near Portage and loved driving his Uncle Bud’s Dodge pickup truck with 25 three-on-the-tree transmission. Dan graduated from Portage High School in 1986

ASSEMBLY BILL 77

1 where he was known as a quiet, humble, decent, and honest student who let everyone
2 know he was going to join the U.S. Army and get into the special forces, earning him 3 the nickname Rambusch. When Dan enlisted in the U.S. Army, he succeeded and 4 excelled at all he set out to accomplish. When he soon became a ranger, he was known 5 widely as one of the best in his outfit at land navigation and tracking. Ultimately, 6 he became the youngest enlisted person at that time to qualify as a member of Delta
7 Force and became the youngest member of Delta Force at the time to qualify as a 8 sniper.

9 (d) Dan's selfless acts in battle on that fateful day in Mogadishu, Somalia, 10 exemplify not just his incredible character and integrity, but his unwavering and 11 steadfast commitment to his country and his fellow comrades.
