BILL

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL PREFATORY NOTE: This bill was prepared for the Joint Legislative Council's Study Committee on Minor Guardianships. Generally, the bill creates a new process and standards for appointment of a guardian of a minor's person. A description of current law and a summary of the bill's key provisions are provided below.

Introduction

Chapter 54, Stats., currently governs guardianships of the person, estate, or both of minors, as well as incompetent or spendthrift adults. Unlike certain, specialized minor guardianships under ch. 48, Stats., minor guardianships under ch. 54, Stats., do not require involvement by the child welfare system and therefore are informally referred to as "private" guardianships.

Under current law, a guardian of a minor's person has the authority to exercise care, custody, and control over the minor. The court may appoint either a temporary guardian, for a duration up to 60 days and one additional 60-day period, or a permanent guardian, with the appointment terminating only upon certain events specified by statute and case law.

Chapter 54, Stats., focuses primarily on incompetent and spendthrift adults, rendering many of the chapter's provisions inapplicable to minors. Current statutory law does not address certain issues relevant to minor guardianships, such as emergency situations and parental visitation.

Jurisdiction

The bill removes guardianships of a minor's person from ch. 54, Stats., and creates a new statute governing guardianships of a child's person in a new subchapter under ch. 48, Stats. This change transfers jurisdiction over private guardianships from the probate court under ch. 54, Stats., to the children's court under ch. 48, Stats. Under the bill, guardianships of a child's estate remain governed by ch. 54, Stats., but may be consolidated with actions under the new procedure.

The bill does not change the process or standard for appointment of a guardian in the specialized circumstances under ch. 48, Stats. The bill also specifies that a petition filed under the new statute may not seek to change preexisting orders entered in certain actions under chs. 48 and 938, Stats. If any such actions are pending, the bill requires the court to stay any subsequent proceedings under the new statute until the pending action is resolved, subject to certain exceptions. In addition, the bill prohibits a dispositional order under the new statute from changing the placement of a child under the supervision of a court in certain types of actions.

Types of Guardianship

The bill creates four types of guardianships of a child's person: full; limited; temporary; and emergency. The bill clarifies that a parent retains all rights and duties that are not assigned to the guardian or otherwise limited by statute or court order. For each type of guardian, the bill provides the following standards for and duties upon appointment:

A full guardianship requires a finding that the child's parents are unfit, unwilling, or unable to provide for the care, custody, and control of the child or other compelling facts and circumstances demonstrate that a full guardianship is necessary. Once appointed, the bill grants a full guardian the duties and authority granted to other guardians under ch. 48, Stats., as well as the following: the authority, subject to a court order, to determine reasonable visitation with the child; the right to change the child's residence from this state to another state; and the duty to report to the court immediately regarding any address changes and annually regarding the child's condition.

A limited guardianship requires a finding that the child's parents need assistance in providing for the care, custody, and control of the child. The court must specify the limited guardian's duties and authority, and may limit such authority to allow a parent to retain certain decision-making powers. If in the child's best interest, the court may also allow shared physical custody among the limited guardian and the parent.

A temporary guardianship requires a finding that the child's particular situation, including the inability of the child's parents to provide for the care, custody, and control of the child for a temporary period of time, requires the appointment of a temporary guardian. A temporary guardian may be appointed for a period not to exceed 180 days, though the court may grant one additional 180-day period for good cause shown. In its order, the court must limit the temporary guardian's authority to those acts that are reasonably related to the reasons for the appointment.

An emergency guardianship requires a finding that the child's welfare requires the immediate appointment of an emergency guardian. The court may appoint an emergency guardian for a period not to exceed 60 days and must limit the emergency guardian's authority to those acts reasonably related to the reasons for the appointment.

Procedure for Full, Limited and Temporary Guardianships

Under the bill, any person, including a child 12 years of age or older, may petition for the appointment of a guardian for a child. The petition must contain certain information including the type of guardianship sought, the facts and circumstances establishing that a guardianship is needed, the name and address of a proposed guardian, and other information as specified in the bill. A parent or a child 12 years or older may also nominate a guardian under the bill. Under the bill, the court must appoint the person nominated as the guardian by the parent, unless the court finds that appointment of the person nominated is not in the child's best interest.

The bill requires that an initial hearing be held within 45 days after a petition is filed. At least 96 hours before the initial hearing, the proposed guardian must submit a report to the court as to his or her existing parental, guardianship, or custodial responsibilities and financial situation, and as to whether he or she is charged with or has been convicted of a crime or child abuse or neglect. Any interested person, as defined in the bill, may become a party to the hearing.

At the initial hearing, the court must first determine whether any party wishes to contest the petition. If the petition is not contested, the court must immediately proceed to a fact-finding and dispositional hearing, unless an adjournment is requested. If the petition is contested and all parties consent, the court may proceed immediately to a fact-finding and dispositional hearing. If any party does not consent or if an adjournment is requested, the court must set a date for a fact-finding and dispositional hearing that allows reasonable time for the parties to prepare but is not more than 30 days after the initial hearing.

At the fact-finding and dispositional hearing, any party may present evidence, including expert testimony, and argument relating to the allegations in the petition. The court must determine whether the petitioner has proven the allegations in the petition by clear and convincing evidence and must immediately proceed to determine the appropriate disposition.

The bill requires the court to consider all of the following factors in determining the appropriate disposition: 1) any nomination of a guardian made by a parent or the child, if 12 years of age or older, and the opinions of the parents and child as to what is in the child's best interests; 2) whether the proposed guardian would be fit, willing, and able to serve as the child's guardian; 3) if the child is an Indian child, the order of placement preference required for an Indian child in an Indian child custody proceeding, unless the court finds good cause for departing from that order; and 4) whether appointment of the proposed guardian is in the child's best interests.

Procedure for Emergency Guardianships

Under the bill, any person may petition for the appointment of an emergency guardian for a child. The petition must contain the same information required for a full, limited, or temporary guardianship, and must specify the reasons for the appointment of and the powers requested for an emergency guardian.

The bill requires the court to hold a hearing on an emergency petition as soon as possible after the filing of the petition or, for good cause shown, the court may issue a temporary order appointing an emergency guardian without a hearing, which remains in effect until a hearing is held. Any person who receives notice of the emergency guardianship petition under the bill has a right to a hearing for reconsideration or modification of an emergency guardianship.

Role of the Guardian ad Litem

Generally, the bill requires appointment of a guardian ad litem (GAL) in proceedings to appoint a guardian or terminate a guardianship, as well as in proceedings to modify a guardianship, if a hearing will be held.

In addition to the duties and responsibilities generally required of a GAL under ch. 48, Stats., the bill requires a GAL appointed under the new statute to conduct an investigation appropriate to the case, including: 1) meet with or observe the child; 2) assess the appropriateness and safety of the child's environment; 3) interview the child to determine the child's goal and concerns, if appropriate; 4) interview the proposed guardian; 5) visit the proposed guardian's home, if appropriate; and 6) report to the court concerning whether the proposed guardian is fit, willing, and able to serve.

The bill also requires the GAL to attend all court proceedings, present evidence concerning the child's best interest, make clear and specific recommendations to the court at every stage of the proceedings, and, upon request, report to the court concerning any matter related to the GAL's duties. Further, the bill requires the GAL to inspect certain reports and records relating to the child and, upon presentation of necessary releases, the child's family and the proposed guardian. The court must order custodians of the specified reports or records to permit inspection and copying of such reports or records by the GAL.

Post-Appointment Matters

The bill allows a court, on its own motion or upon the petition of any interested person, to appoint a successor guardian after a guardian has died, been removed, or resigned, or as a part of the original appointment or any time after, even while the current guardianship is still in place.

Under the bill, if the guardian abuses or neglects the child or knowingly permits others to do so, fails to disclose information that would have prevented his or her appointment as guardian, fails to follow or comply with the court's order, or otherwise fails to perform any of his or her duties as guardian, the court may exercise its continuing jurisdiction to impose certain remedies, including removal of the guardian and appointment of a successor guardian, modification of the duties and authority of the guardian, or entry of an order that may be necessary or appropriate to compel the guardian to carry out the guardian's duties. The court may also require the guardian to pay any costs of the proceeding if the guardian's conduct was egregious. The bill requires the court to hold a hearing on a petition for the review of the conduct of a guardian within 30 days of the filing of the petition.

The bill authorizes a court to modify a guardianship order, if the court finds that there has been a substantial change in circumstances since the last order affecting the guardianship was entered and that the proposed modification is in the child's best interests.

Under the bill, a guardianship continues until the child attains the age of 18 years unless 1) the guardianship is for a lesser period of time and that time has expired; 2) the child marries; 3) the child dies; 4) the child's residence changes from this state to another state and a guardian is appointed in the new state of residence; 5) the guardian dies, or resigns and the resignation is approved by the court, and a successor guardian is not appointed; 6) the guardian is removed for cause and a successor guardian is not appointed; 7) the guardianship is terminated on the request of a parent or the child; or 8) the court terminates the guardianship upon the adoption of the child.

INS-
TREF

The bill also allows a parent or child to petition for termination of a guardianship. Specifically, the court must terminate the guardianship if it finds that the petitioner has shown by a preponderance of the evidence that a substantial change in circumstances since the last order affecting the guardianship was entered, that the parent is fit, willing, and able to carry out the duties of a guardian or that no compelling facts or circumstances exist demonstrating that a guardianship is necessary, and that termination of the guardianship would be in the best interests of the child.

4 f. If the child is receiving or in need of any public services or benefits, the county 5 department or, in a county having a population of 750,000 or more, the department 6 that is providing the services or benefits, through district attorney, corporation 7 counsel, or other officials designated under s. 48.09.

8 g. If the child is an Indian child, the Indian child's Indian custodian and Indian 9 tribe.

10 h. Any other person that the court may require.

11 2. For purposes of proceedings subsequent to an order for guardianship of a 12 child, any of the following:

13 a. The child, if the child has attained 12 years of age, the child's guardian ad 14 litem, and the child's counsel.

15 b. The child's parent and guardian.

16 c. The county of venue, through the district attorney, corporation counsel, or 17 other official designated under s. 48.09, if the county has an interest in the 18 guardianship.

19 d. If the child is an Indian child, the Indian child's tribe.

20 e. Any other person that the court may require.

21 (b) "Party" means the person petitioning for the appointment of a guardian for 22 a child or any interested person other than a person who is alleged to the court to be 23 the father of the child or who may, based on the statements of the mother or other 24 information presented to the court, be the father of the child.

BILL

1 (2) APPOINTMENT; VENUE; NOMINATION; DUTY AND AUTHORITY. (a) Venue. Except 2 as provided under par. (b) 2., venue for guardianship under this section shall be in 3 the child's county of residence or in the county in which the child is physically 4 present, or, if the child is a nonresident, the county in which the petitioner proposes 5 that the child resides. The court may, upon a motion and for good cause shown, 6 transfer the case, along with all appropriate records, to the county in which a 7 dispositional order has been issued under this chapter.

8 (b) Appointment. 1. This section may be used for the appointment of a guardian 9 of the person for a child. An appointment of a guardian of the estate of a child shall 10 be conducted under the procedures specified in ch. 54. If the court assigned to 11 exercise jurisdiction under this chapter has jurisdiction over a proceeding for the 12 appointment of a guardian of the person for a child or continuing jurisdiction over 13 such a guardianship and the court assigned to exercise probate jurisdiction has 14 jurisdiction over a proceeding for the appointment of a guardian of the estate of the 15 child or continuing jurisdiction over such a guardianship, the court assigned to 16 exercise jurisdiction under this chapter may order those proceedings or 17 guardianships to be consolidated under the jurisdiction of the court assigned to 18 exercise jurisdiction under this chapter. Upon such consolidation, the court assigned 19 to exercise jurisdiction under this chapter shall order all records relating to the 20 guardianship of the estate of the child to be transferred to the court assigned to 21 exercise jurisdiction under this chapter and that court shall retain those records as 22 required under SCR chapter 72. This section does not prohibit a person from 23 petitioning a court under s. 48.831, 48.977, or 48.978 for the appointment of a 24 guardian of the person for a child.

BILL

1 2. If the child is the subject of an action pending under s. 48.13, 48.133, or 48.14 2 or ch. 938, any subsequent petition filed under this section shall be heard by the court 3 authorized to exercise jurisdiction over the pending action. The court shall stay a 4 guardianship proceeding for the appointment of a full, limited, or temporary 5 guardian of the person for a child under par. (d) 1., 2., or 3. until the action pending 6 under s. 48.13, 48.133, or 48.14 or ch. 938 is resolved. The court may appoint an 7 emergency guardian under sub. (6) while an action is pending under s. 48.13, 48.133, 8 or 48.14 or ch. 938 if the court finds that the best interests of the child require the 9 immediate appointment of a guardian.

10 3. A petition filed under this section may not seek to change an order under s.
11 48.13, 48.133, or 48.14 or ch. 938.

12 4. The court may appoint coguardians of the person for a child under this 13 section, subject to any conditions that the court imposes. Unless the court orders 14 otherwise, any decision concerning the child must be concurred in by all coguardians 15 or is void.

16 (c) Nomination by parent or child. 1. A parent may nominate a guardian and 17 successor guardian for any of his or her children who is in need of guardianship, 18 including a nomination by will. Subject to the rights of a surviving parent, the court 19 shall appoint the person nominated as guardian or successor guardian, unless the 20 court finds that appointment of the person nominated is not in the child's best 21 interests.

22 2. A child who has attained 12 years of age may nominate his or her own 23 guardian, but if the child is outside of the state or if other good reason exists, the court 24 may dispense with the child's right of nomination. If neither parent of a child who

BILL

1 has attained 12 years of age is fit, willing, and able to carry out the duties of a 2 guardian, the court may appoint the nominee of the child.

3 3. In determining who is appointed as guardian, the court shall consider the 4 nominations of the parents and child and the opinions of the parents and child as to 5 what is in the best interests of the child, but the best interests of the child as 6 determined by the court shall control in making the determination when those 7 nominations and opinions are in conflict with those best interests.

8 (d) Duties and authority of guardian. 1. 'Full guardianship.' Subject to subds.
9 2. and 5., a guardian appointed under sub. (4) (h) 2. has all of the following duties and 10 authority:

11 a. All of the duties and authority specified in s. 48.023.

12 b. Subject to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, the authority to 13 determine reasonable visitation with the child.

14 c. The right to change the residence of the child from this state to another state.

15 d. The duty to immediately notify the court that appointed the guardian of any 16 change in the address of the guardian or child and to make an annual report to that 17 court on the condition of the child. The report shall include the location of the child, 18 the health condition of the child, and any recommendations regarding the child.

19 2. 'Limited guardianship.' The court may order that the duties and authority 20 of a guardian appointed under sub. (4) (h) 2. be limited. The duties and authority of 21 a limited guardian shall be as specified by the order of appointment under sub. (4) 22 (h) 2. The duties and authority of a full guardian shall apply to a limited guardian 23 to the extent relevant to the duties or authority of the limited guardian, except as 24 limited by the order of appointment. The court may limit the authority of a guardian 25 with respect to any power to allow the parent to retain such power to make decisions

BILL

1 as is within the parent's ability to exercise effectively and may limit the physical 2 custody of a guardian to allow shared physical custody with the parent if shared 3 physical custody is in the best interests of the child. The court shall set an expiration 4 date for a limited guardianship order, which may be extended for good cause shown.

5 3. 'Temporary guardianship.' If it is demonstrated to the court that a child's 6 particular situation, including the inability of the child's parent to provide for the 7 care, custody, and control of the child for a temporary period of time, requires the 8 appointment of a temporary guardian, the court may appoint a temporary guardian 9 as provided under sub. (5).

10 4. 'Emergency guardianship.' If it is demonstrated to the court that the welfare 11 of a child requires the immediate appointment of an emergency guardian, the court 12 may appoint an emergency guardian as provided under sub. (6).

13 5. 'Powers of guardian.' The parent retains all rights and duties accruing to the 14 parent as a result of the parent-child relationship that are not assigned to the 15 guardian or otherwise limited by statute or court order. A guardian acting on behalf 16 of a child may exercise only those powers that the guardian is authorized to exercise 17 by statute or court order. The court may authorize a guardian to exercise only those 18 powers that are necessary to provide for the care, custody, and control of the child and 19 to exercise those powers in a manner that is appropriate to the child.

20 (3) GUARDIAN AD LITEM. ^(a) The court shall appoint a guardian ad litem when a 21 petition is filed for appointment of a guardian or termination of a guardianship under 22 this section. Except as provided under sub. (6) (b) 3., the court shall appoint the 23 guardian ad litem as soon as possible and before the initial hearing. The court shall 24 appoint a guardian ad litem when it determines that a hearing for modification is to 25 be held under sub. (9) (b). In a case that is contested, the guardian ad litem may file

1 a motion pursuant to s. 48.235 (8) (b). In addition to any other duties and 2 responsibilities required of a guardian ad litem including those under s. 48.235 (3), 3 a guardian ad litem appointed for a child who is the subject of a proceeding under this 4 section shall do all of the following unless granted leave by the court not to do so:

5 (a) Conduct an investigation appropriate to the case, including all of the 6 following:

7 1. Personally, or through a trained designee, meet with or observe the child, 8 assess the appropriateness and safety of the environment of the child, and, if 9 appropriate to the age and developmental level of the child, interview the child and 10 determine the child's goals and concerns regarding the proposed guardianship.

11 2. Interview the proposed guardian, personally or through a trained designee, 12 visit the proposed guardian's home, if appropriate, and report to the court concerning 13 whether the proposed guardian is fit, willing, and able to serve as guardian of the 14 child.

15 (b) Attend all court proceedings relating to the guardianship, present evidence 16 concerning the best interests of the child, if necessary, and make clear and specific 17 recommendations to the court at every stage of the proceedings.

18 (c) Report to the court on any matter related to his or her duties that the court 19 requests.

20 (c) (d) To the extent necessary to fulfill the duties and responsibilities required of 21 the guardian ad litem in the proceedings, the guardian ad litem shall inspect reports and records relating to the 22 child and, upon presentation of necessary releases, the child's family, and the 23 proposed guardian, including law enforcement reports and records under ss. 48.396 24 (1) and 938.396 (1) (a), court records under ss. 48.396 (2) (a) and 938.396 (2), social 25 welfare agency records under ss. 48.78 (2) (a) and 938.78 (2) (a), abuse and neglect

3 146.82 (2) (a) 4. The court shall include in the order appointing the guardian ad litem 4 an order requiring the custodian of any report or record specified in this subdivision 5 to permit the guardian ad litem to inspect and copy the report or record on 6 presentation by the guardian ad litem of a copy of the order. A guardian ad litem who 7 obtains access to a report or record described in this subdivision shall keep the 8 information contained in the report or record confidential and may use or further 9 disclose that information only for purpose of the proceedings.

10 (4) PROCEDURES. (a) Petition; who may file. 1. Except as provided in subd. 2., 11 any person, including a child 12 years of age or over on his or her own behalf, may 12 petition for the appointment of a guardian for a child.

13 2. If there is an action pending under s. 48.13, 48.133, or 48.14 or ch. 938, a 14 petition under this subsection may be filed by any party to the pending action or any 15 person approved by the court if the petition is consistent with the child's permanency 16 plan and does not seek to change the requirements of any preexisting court order 17 issued under s. 48.13, 48.133, or 48.14 or ch. 938.

18 (b) Petition; form and content. A petition for guardianship may include an 19 application for protective placement or protective services or both under ch. 55. The 20 petition shall be entitled "In the interest of (child's name), a person under the age 21 of 18" and shall state all of the following, if known to the petitioner:

22 1. The name, date of birth, and address of the child.

23 2. The names and addresses of the petitioner, the child's parents, current 24 guardian, and legal custodian, if any, the proposed guardian, any proposed successor 25 guardians, and all other interested persons.

BILL

1 3. Whether the petitioner is requesting a full guardianship, a limited 2 guardianship, a temporary guardianship, or an emergency guardianship.

3 4. If the petitioner is requesting a full guardianship, the facts and 4 circumstances establishing that the child's parents are unfit, unwilling, or unable to 5 provide for the care, custody, and control of the child or other compelling facts and 6 circumstances demonstrating that a full guardianship is necessary.

7 5. If the petitioner is requesting a limited guardianship, the facts and 8 circumstances establishing that the child's parents need assistance in providing for 9 the care, custody, and control of the child and a statement of the specific duties and 10 authority under sub. (2) (d) sought by the petitioner for the proposed guardian and 11 the specific parental rights and duties that the petitioner seeks to have transferred.

12 6. If the petitioner is requesting a temporary guardianship, the facts and 13 circumstances establishing that the child's particular situation, including the 14 inability of the child's parents to provide for the care, custody, and control of the child 15 for a temporary period of time, requires the appointment of a temporary guardian; 16 the reasons for the appointment of a temporary guardian; and the powers requested 17 for the temporary guardian.

18 7. If the petitioner is requesting an emergency guardianship, the facts and 19 circumstances establishing that the welfare of the child requires the immediate 20 appointment of an emergency guardian.

21 8. The facts and circumstances establishing that the proposed guardian is fit, 22 willing, and able to serve as the child's guardian.

23 9. The information required under s. 822.29 (1).

24 10. Whether the child may be subject to s. 48.028 or the federal Indian Child 25 Welfare Act, 25 USC 1901 to 1963, and, if the child may be subject to s. 48.028 or that

BILL

1 act, the names and addresses of the child's Indian custodian, if any, and Indian tribe, 2 if known.

3 11. If the petitioner knows or has reason to know that the child is an Indian 4 child, reliable and credible information showing that continued custody of the child 5 by the child's parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or 6 physical damage to the child under s. 48.028 (4) (d) 1. and that active efforts under 7 s. 48.028 (4) (d) 2. have been made to prevent the breakup of the Indian child's family 8 and that those efforts have proved unsuccessful and, if the proposed guardianship 9 would change the placement of the child from the home of his or her parent or Indian 10 custodian to a placement outside that home, a statement as to whether the new 11 placement is in compliance with the order of placement preference under s. 48.028 12 (7) (b) or, if applicable, s. 48.028 (7) (c) and, if the new placement is not in compliance 13 with that order, specific information showing good cause, as described in s. 48.028 14 (7) (e), for departing from that order.

15 12. Whether the petitioner is aware of any guardianship or other related 16 proceeding involving the child that is pending in another court and, if so, the details 17 of the guardianship, termination of parental rights, or related proceeding.

18 13. Whether there is an action pending or the child is subject to a court order 19 under s. 48.13, 48.133, or 48.14 or ch. 938.

20 (c) Service of petition and notice. 1. Except as provided in subd. 3. and sub. (6) 21 (b) 2., the petitioner shall cause the petition and notice of the time and place of the 22 hearing under par. (e) to be served at least 7 days before the time of the hearing upon 23 all interested persons. Failure of the petitioner to provide notice to all interested 24 persons shall deprive the court of jurisdiction unless notice is specifically waived by 25 an interested person or by the court for good cause shown.

BILL

1 2. A notice shall be in writing. A copy of the petition and any other required
2 document shall be attached to the notice. Except as provided in subd. 3. and sub. (6) 3 (b) 2., notice shall be delivered in person or by certified mail. Notice is considered to 4 be given by proof of personal delivery, by proof that the notice was sent by certified 5 mail to the last-known address of the recipient, or, if the recipient is an adult, by the 6 written admission of service of the person served.

7 3. If the petitioner knows or has reason to know that the child is an Indian child, 8 notice to the Indian child's parent, Indian custodian, and Indian tribe shall be 9 provided in the manner specified in s. 48.028 (4) (a). No hearing may be held under 10 par. (e) or (f) until at least 10 days after receipt of the notice by the Indian child's 11 parent, Indian custodian, and Indian tribe or, if the identity or location of the Indian 12 child's parent, Indian custodian, or tribe cannot be determined, until at least 15 days 13 after receipt of the notice by the U.S. secretary of the interior. On request of the 14 Indian child's parent, Indian custodian, or Indian tribe, the court shall grant a 15 continuance of up to 20 additional days to enable the requester to prepare for the 16 hearing.

17 (d) Statement by proposed guardian. At least 96 hours before the hearing under 18 par. (e), the proposed guardian shall submit to the court a sworn and notarized 19 statement as to the number of persons for whom the proposed guardian is 20 responsible, whether as a parent, guardian, or legal custodian, as to the proposed 21 guardian's income, assets, debts, and living expenses, and as to whether the 22 proposed guardian is currently charged with or has been convicted of a crime or has 23 been determined under s. 48.981 (3) (c) to have abused or neglected a child. If the 24 proposed guardian is currently charged with or has been convicted of a crime or has 25 been determined under s. 48.981 (3) (c) to have abused or neglected a child, he or she

BILL

1 shall include in the sworn and notarized statement a description of the 2 circumstances surrounding the charge, conviction, or determination.

3 (e) Initial hearing. 1. The initial hearing on a petition for guardianship, other 4 than a petition for emergency guardianship under sub. (6), shall be heard within 45 5 days after the filing of the petition. At the hearing, the court shall first determine 6 whether any party wishes to contest the petition. If the petition is not contested, the 7 court shall immediately proceed to a fact-finding and dispositional hearing, unless 8 an adjournment is requested. If the petition is contested and all parties consent, the 9 court may proceed immediately to a fact-finding and dispositional hearing. If any 10 party does not consent or if an adjournment is requested, the court shall set a date 11 for a fact-finding and dispositional hearing that allows reasonable time for the 12 parties to prepare but is not more than 30 days after the initial hearing.

13 2. The proposed guardian and any proposed successor guardian shall be 14 physically present at all hearings unless the court excuses the attendance of either 15 or, for good cause shown, permits attendance by telephone. The child is not required 16 to attend any hearings, but if the child has nominated the proposed guardian, the 17 child shall provide to the guardian ad litem sufficient information for the guardian 18 ad litem to advise the court on whether the nomination is in the best interests of the 19 child.

20 3. If a man who has been given notice under par. (c) 1. appears at the initial 21 hearing, alleges that he is the father of the child, and states that he wishes to 22 establish the paternity of the child, s. 48.299 (6) applies. The court may order a 23 temporary guardianship under sub. (5) pending the outcome of the paternity 24 proceedings.

BILL

1 (f) Fact-finding and dispositional hearing. The court shall hold the 2 fact-finding and dispositional hearing at the time specified or set by the court under 3 this paragraph, at which any party may present evidence, including expert 4 testimony, and argument relating to the allegations in the petition. The court shall 5 determine whether the petitioner has proven the allegations in the petition under 6 par. (b) by clear and convincing evidence and shall immediately proceed to determine 7 the appropriate disposition under par. (h), considering the factors under par. (g).

8 (g) Dispositional factors. In determining the appropriate disposition under par.
9 (h), the court shall consider all of the following:

10 1. Any nominations made under sub. (2) (c) 1. or 2. and the opinions of the 11 parents and child as to what is in the best interests of the child, but the best interests 12 of the child as determined by the court shall control in making the determination 13 when those nominations and opinions are in conflict with those best interests.

14 2. Whether the proposed guardian would be fit, willing, and able to serve as the 15 guardian of the child.

16 3. If the child is an Indian child, the order of placement preference under s.
17 48.028 (7) (b) or, if applicable, s. 48.028 (7) (c), unless the court finds good cause, as 18 described in s. 48.028 (7) (e), for departing from that order.

19 4. Whether appointment of the proposed guardian as the child's guardian is in 20 the best interests of the child.

21 (h) Disposition. At the conclusion of the hearing under par. (f), the court shall 22 grant one of the following dispositions, unless the court adjourns the hearing under 23 par. (i):

24 1. A disposition dismissing the petition if the court finds that the petitioner has 25 not proved the allegations in the petition by clear and convincing evidence or

BILL

1 determines that appointment of the proposed guardian as the child's guardian is not 2 in the best interests of the child. Dismissal of a petition under this subdivision does 3 not preclude the court from referring the child to the intake worker for an intake 4 inquiry under s. 48.24 or from acting as an intake worker at the court's discretion 5 under s. 48.10.

6 2. A disposition ordering the guardianship and issuing letters of guardianship 7 if the court finds that the petitioner has proved the allegations in the petition by clear 8 and convincing evidence and determines that such an appointment is in the best 9 interests of the child. A dispositional order for a full, limited, or temporary 10 guardianship under this subsection may not change the placement of a child under 11 the supervision of a court pursuant to s. 48.13, 48.133, or 48.14 or ch. 938. The 12 disposition shall include all of the following:

13 a. Whether the appointment is for a full, limited, or temporary guardianship, 14 and, if limited or temporary, the limitations and expiration date of the guardianship.

15 b. If applicable, the amount of support to be paid by the child's parents.

16 c. If applicable, and subject to sub. (13), reasonable rules of parental visitation.

17 Subject to a court order under this subdivision or sub. (9) or (13), the guardian's 18 decision regarding visitation is presumed to be in the best interest of the child and, 19 if the court reviews the decision, the petitioner has the burden of proving by clear and 20 convincing evidence that the decision of the guardian is not in the best interest of the 21 child.

22 (i) Adjournment; proposed guardian unfit or not in best interests. If at the 23 conclusion of the hearing under par. (f) the court finds that the petitioner has proved 24 the allegations in the petition, other than the allegation specified in par. (b) 8., by 25 clear and convincing evidence, but that the proposed guardian is not fit, willing, and

BILL

1 able to serve as the guardian of the child, or if the court finds that the petitioner has 2 so proved all of the allegations in the petition, but that appointment of the proposed 3 guardian as the child's guardian is not in the best interests of the child, the court may, 4 in lieu of granting a disposition dismissing the petition under par. (h) 1., adjourn the 5 hearing for not more than 30 days, request the petitioner or any other party to 6 nominate a new proposed guardian, and order the guardian ad litem to report to the 7 court concerning whether the new proposed guardian is fit, willing, and able to serve 8 as the guardian of the child.

9 (5) TEMPORARY GUARDIANSHIPS. (a) Duration and extent of authority. The court 10 may appoint a temporary guardian for a child for a period not to exceed 180 days, 11 except that the court may extend this period for good cause shown for one additional 12 180-day period. The court's determination and order appointing the temporary 13 guardian shall specify the authority of the temporary guardian, which shall be 14 limited to those acts that are reasonably related to the reasons for the appointment 15 that are specified in the petition for temporary guardianship. The authority of the 16 temporary guardian is limited to the performance of those acts stated in the order 17 of appointment.

18 (b) Procedures for appointment. A petition for the appointment of a temporary 19 guardian shall be heard in the same manner and is subject to the same requirements 20 as provided in this section for the appointment of a full or limited guardian.

21 (c) Cessation of powers. The duties and powers of the temporary guardian cease 22 upon the expiration of the period specified in par. (a), or the termination as 23 determined by the court of the situation of the child that was the cause of the 24 temporary guardianship. Upon cessation of a temporary guardianship, the 25 temporary guardian shall file with the court any report that the court requires.

BILLSECTION 21

1 (6) EMERGENCY GUARDIANSHIPS. (a) Duration and extent of authority. The court 2 may appoint an emergency guardian for a child for a period not to exceed 60 days.
3 The court's determination and order appointing the emergency guardian shall 4 specify the authority of the emergency guardian and shall be limited to those acts 5 that are reasonably related to the reasons for the appointment that are specified in 6 the petition for emergency guardianship. The authority of the emergency guardian 7 is limited to the performance of those acts stated in the order of appointment.

8 (b) Procedures for appointment. All of the following procedures apply to the 9 appointment of an emergency guardian:

10 1. Any person may petition for the appointment of an emergency guardian for 11 a child. The petition shall contain the information required under sub. (4) (b) and 12 shall specify the reasons for the appointment of an emergency guardian and the 13 powers requested for the emergency guardian.

14 2. The petitioner shall give notice of the petition and of the time and place of 15 the hearing under subd. 4. to the child, if 12 years of age or over, the child's guardian 16 ad litem, and the child's counsel, if any; the child's parents, guardian, and legal 17 custodian; and the person nominated as emergency guardian. The notice and a copy 18 of the petition shall be served as soon after the filing of the petition as possible, shall 19 be served by the most practical means possible, including personal service or service 20 by electronic mail or telephone, and shall include notice of the right to petition for 21 reconsideration or modification of the emergency guardianship under subd. 5. If the 22 petitioner serves notice of the hearing after the hearing is conducted and the court 23 has entered an order, the petitioner shall include the court's order with the notice of 24 the hearing.

BILL

1 3. The court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for the child as soon as possible
2 after the filing of the petition. The court shall attempt to appoint the guardian ad 3 litem before the hearing on the petition, but may appoint the guardian ad litem after 4 the hearing if the court finds that exigent circumstances require the immediate 5 appointment of an emergency guardian. The guardian ad litem shall meet with or 6 observe the child before the hearing or as soon as is practicable after the hearing, but 7 not later than 3 calendar days after the hearing. The guardian ad litem shall report 8 to the court on the advisability of the emergency guardianship at the hearing or, if 9 not appointed until after the hearing, not later than 7 calendar days after the 10 hearing.

11 4. The court shall hold a hearing on the emergency guardianship petition as

BILL

1 (c) Immunity. An emergency guardian of a child is immune from civil liability 2 for his or her acts or omissions in performing the duties of emergency guardianship

4 with the degree of diligence and prudence that an ordinarily prudent person 5 exercises in his or her own affairs.

6 (d) Cessation of powers. The duties and powers of the emergency guardian 7 cease upon the expiration of the period specified in par. (a), or the termination as 8 determined by the court of the situation of the child that was the cause of the 9 emergency guardianship. Upon cessation of an emergency guardianship, the 10 emergency guardian shall file with the court any report that the court requires.

11 (7) STANDBY GUARDIANSHIP. A petition for the appointment of a standby 12 guardian of the person for a child to assume the duty and authority of guardianship 13 on the incapacity, death, or debilitation and consent, of the child's parent shall be

15 (8) SUCCESSOR GUARDIAN. (a) Appointment; initial petition or during 16 guardianship. 1. As part of a petition for the initial appointment of a guardian of 17 a child or at any time after that appointment, a person may petition for the 18 appointment of one or more successor guardians of the child to assume the duty and 19 authority of full, limited, or temporary guardianship in the event of an occurrence 20 specified in subd. 2. Except as provided in par. (b), if the petition for the appointment 21 of a successor guardian is brought after the initial appointment of a guardian, the 22 petition shall be heard in the same manner and subject to the same requirements as 23 provided under this section for an initial appointment of a guardian.

24 2. After hearing, the court may designate one or more successor guardians 25 whose appointment shall become effective immediately upon the death,

BILL

1 unwillingness or inability to act, resignation, or removal by the court of the initially 2 appointed guardian or during a period, as determined by the initially appointed 3 guardian, when the initially appointed guardian is temporarily unable to fulfill his 4 or her duties, including during an extended vacation or illness. The powers and 5 duties of the successor guardian shall be the same as those of the initially appointed 6 guardian. The successor guardian shall receive a copy of the court order establishing 7 or modifying the initial guardianship and of the order designating the successor 8 guardian. Upon the occurrence of an event specified in this subdivision, the 9 successor guardian shall so notify the court and request the court to issue new letters 10 of guardianship. Upon notification, the court shall issue new letters of guardianship 11 that specify that the successor guardianship is permanent or that specify the period 12 for a temporary successor guardianship.

13 (b) Appointment; when no guardian. 1. If a guardian dies, is removed by order 14 of the court, or resigns and the resignation is accepted by the court, the court, on its 15 own motion or upon petition of any interested person, may appoint a person who is 16 fit, willing, and able to serve as successor guardian. The court may, upon request of 17 any interested person or on its own motion, direct that the petition or motion for the 18 appointment of a successor guardian be heard in the same manner and subject to the 19 same requirements as provided under this section for an initial appointment of a 20 guardian.

21 2. If the appointment under subd. 1. is made without hearing, the successor 22 guardian shall provide notice to all interested persons of the appointment and the 23 right to petition for reconsideration of the appointment of the successor guardian.
24 The notice shall be served personally or by mail not later than 7 days after the 25 appointment.

BILL

1 (9) MODIFICATION OF GUARDIANSHIP ORDER. (a) Any interested person or other 2 person approved by the court may request a modification of a guardianship order 3 entered under this subsection or sub. (4) (h) 2. or the court may, on its own motion, 4 propose such a modification. The request or motion shall set forth in detail the 5 nature of the proposed modification, shall allege facts sufficient to show that there 6 has been a substantial change in circumstances since the last order affecting the 7 guardianship was entered and that the proposed modification would be in the best 8 interests of the child, and shall allege any other information that affects the 9 advisability of the court's disposition.

10 (b) The court shall hold a hearing on the matter prior to any modification of the 11 guardianship order if the request or motion indicates that new information is 12 available that affects the advisability of the court's guardianship order, unless 13 written waivers of objections to the modification are signed by all interested persons 14 other than the child and the court approves the waivers.

15 (c) If a hearing is to be held, the person requesting or proposing the modification 16 shall notify all interested persons at least 7 days prior to the hearing of the date, 17 place, and purpose of the hearing. A copy of the request or proposal shall be attached 18 to the notice. The court may order a modification if, at the hearing, the court finds 19 that the person proposing the modification has proved by clear and convincing 20 evidence that there has been a substantial change in circumstances and determines 21 that a modification would be in the best interests of the child. An order for 22 modification under this subsection may not change the placement of a child under 23 the supervision of a court pursuant to s. 48.13, 48.133, or 48.14 or ch. 938, other than 11 48.023.

15 sufficient to show cause under par. (b) for the court to impose a remedy under par.
16 (d). The court shall hold a hearing on the request or motion not more than 30 days 17 after the filing of the request or proposal. Not less than 7 days before the date of the 18 hearing, the person requesting or proposing the review shall provide notice of the 19 hearing to the child, his or her parents, the guardian, and any other persons required 20 by the court. A copy of the request or motion shall be attached to the notice.

22 convincing evidence cause as specified in par. (b) to order a remedy under this 23 paragraph, the court may do any of the following:

24 1. Remove the guardian.

25 2. Remove the guardian and appoint a successor guardian.

BILLSECTION 21

1 3. Enter any other order that may be necessary or appropriate to compel the 4 4. Modify the duties and authority of the guardian.

5 5. Require the guardian to pay any costs of the proceeding, including costs of 6 service and attorney fees, if the court finds that the guardian's conduct was 7 egregious.

8 (11) TERMINATION OF GUARDIANSHIP. (a) Term of guardianship. A guardianship

18 6. The guardian is removed for cause under sub. (10) (d) 1. and a successor 19 guardian is not appointed.

20 7. The court terminates the guardianship on the request of a parent of the child 21 or the child under par. (b).

22 8. The court terminates the guardianship upon the adoption of the child.

23 (b) Termination on request of parent or child. 1. A parent of the child or the 24 child may file a petition requesting that a guardianship order entered under sub. (4) 25 (h) 2., (5), (6), (8), or (9) be terminated. The petition shall allege facts sufficient to

BILL

1 show that there has been a substantial change in circumstances since the last order 2 affecting the guardianship was entered, that the parent is fit, willing, and able to 3 carry out the duties of a guardian or that no compelling facts or circumstances exist 4 demonstrating that a guardianship is necessary, and that termination of the 5 guardianship would be in the best interests of the child.

6 2. The court shall hold a hearing on the petition unless written waivers of 7 objections to termination of the guardianship are signed by all interested persons 8 and the court approves the waivers.

9 3. If a hearing is to be held, by no less than 7 days before the date of the hearing, 10 the parent or child requesting the termination shall provide notice of the hearing to 11 the child, the child's parents, the guardian, and any other persons required by the 12 court. A copy of the petition shall be attached to the notice. The court shall terminate 13 the guardianship if the court finds that the petitioner has proven the allegations in 14 the petition under subd. 1. by a preponderance of the evidence.

1 INS - PREF

 Generally, the bill requires appointment of a guardian ad litem (GAL) in proceedings to appoint a guardian or terminate a guardianship, as well as in proceedings to modify a guardianship, if a hearing will be held.

 The GAL represents the best interests of the child throughout the proceedings but must apply in all court proceedings the applicable standard specified in the bill. In addition to certain specific duties and responsibilities required of a GAL under the Children's Code, the GAL must conduct a diligent investigation sufficient to represent the best interests of the child in court. As appropriate to the circumstances, this investigation may include, personally or through a trained designee, meeting with or observing the child, meeting with any proposed guardian, meeting with interested persons, and visiting the homes of the child and the proposed guardian.

 The GAL is required to attend all court proceedings relating to the guardianship, present evidence concerning the best interest of the child, if necessary, and make clear and specific recommendations to the court at every stage of the proceedings. Further, the bill requires the GAL to inspect certain reports and records relating to the child and, upon presentation of necessary releases, the child's family and the proposed guardian. The court must order custodians of the specified reports or records to permit inspection and copying of such reports or records by the GAL.

3 (b) The guardian ad litem has the duties and responsibilities required under 4 s. 48.235 (3) (a). The guardian ad litem represents the best interests of the child 5 throughout the proceedings but must apply in all court proceedings the applicable 6 standard under sub. (4) (b) 4. to 7. The guardian ad litem shall conduct a diligent 7 investigation sufficient to represent the best interests of the child in court. As 8 appropriate to the circumstances, the investigation may include, personally or 9 through a trained designee, meeting with or observing the child, meeting with the 10 proposed guardian, meeting with interested persons, and visiting the homes of the 11 child and the proposed guardian. The guardian ad litem shall attend all court 12 proceedings relating to the guardianship, present evidence concerning the best 13 interests of the child, if necessary, and make clear and specific recommendations to 14 the court at every stage of the proceedings.

15

1 INS 27-5

2 The guardian ad litem shall conduct a diligent investigation sufficient to 3 represent the best interests of the child in court. If the court appoints a guardian ad 4 litem after entry of the order granting the emergency guardianship, the guardian ad 5 litem may petition for reconsideration or modification of the emergency 6 guardianship under subd. 5. If the court dismisses the petition for emergency 7 guardianship prior to appointing a guardian ad litem, the court need not appoint a 8 guardian ad litem unless the petition is refiled.
