Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill creates an independent prosecutor board to oversee and set policies for a state prosecutors office that assumes duties related to district attorneys currently assigned to the Department of Administration. The Attorney General or his or her appointee is a member of the of the Prosecutor Board.

This bill has no fiscal impact on the Department of Justice as the costs of participation on the Prosecutor Board for the Attorney General or a nominee that is an employee of the Department of Justice should be minimal.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications
