Fiscal Estimate Narratives

Description recognizing teaching hours for providing certain extension services of the University of Wisconsin System

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

The bill would require the UW System to recognize as teaching hours time spent by state specialists providing certain extension services.

Under current law, the UW System must report teaching workloads of faculty and instructional staff and reward those that teach more than a standard academic load. These hours are included on the accountability dashboard both in aggregate and individually.

The bill would require the UW System to recognize as teaching hours, for state specialists who provide extension services in the field of applied agricultural research at UW-Platteville, UW-River Falls, or the UW-Madison College of Agricultural and Life Sciences, the time spent by these state specialists teaching graduate students and teaching Wisconsin farmers.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

The fiscal impact is unclear until program guidelines are established for this program.
