Description requiring a study by the University of Wisconsin System of agricultural programs and issues

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill would require the UW-System to study the funding and staffing for UW agricultural programs, curriculum for those programs, problems farmers currently face, and programs in other states to support the agricultural industries.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

At this time it is believed the UW-System may be able to absorb the costs of this study within the current budget.
