Description prohibiting the out-of-home placement of a child with a person with a record of a crime against a child

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill prohibits the out-of-home placement of a child with a nonparent relative or other unlicensed person if that relative or person has been convicted, pled no contest, or had a charge that constitutes child abuse against him or her dropped as a result of a plea agreement. This bill also prohibits subsidized guardianships and licensing of child welfare agencies, foster homes, group homes, and shelter care facilities under the Children's Code if the license applicant, an employee, or a nonclient resident has pled no contest to a charge that constitutes child abuse or had a charge that constitutes child abuse against them dropped as the result of a plea agreement.

This bill would have costs for the Department of Children and Families related to significant changes to policy, procedures, training, forms, and the eWiSACWIS statewide child welfare information system.

Changes to policies, procedures, and forms could be absorbed using existing staff resources.

At least five child welfare trainings would need to be updated at a total cost of approximately $100,000 to $150,000. The bill affects trainings for caseworkers, foster care licensing, Kinship Care, and subsidized guardianship.

Child welfare licensing staff would also be impacted, but the effects are indeterminate at this time.

Finally, the bill would require changes to fundamental processing for a core function of the eWiSACWIS child welfare information system. DCF technical staff estimate that these changes could cost up to $5 million.
