CLEARINGHOUSE RULE 02-090

Comments

[NOTE: All citations to “Manual” in the comments below are to the Administrative Rules Procedures Manual, prepared by the Revisor of Statutes Bureau and the Legislative Council Staff, dated September 1998.]

2. Form, Style and Placement in Administrative Code

a. Section A-E 6.07 (1) and (2) refer to the “state jurisdictional examination.” That term does not appear to be used elsewhere in ch. A-E 6. Consideration should be given to using different terminology, cross-referencing the appropriate current rule, or defining the term.

b. It is suggested that s. A-E 6.07 (2) be redrafted as follows: “Subject to sub. (3), a temporary permit granted under this section expires on the date of the next scheduled state jurisdictional examination if the applicant fails to appear for the examination. If the applicant appears for the examination, a temporary permit granted under this section expires on the date upon which the applicant is notified that he or she has passed or failed the state jurisdictional examination.”

c. In s. A-E 6.07 (3), “those” should replace “such.”

4. Adequacy of References to Related Statutes, Rules and Forms

Section 443.06 (3), Stats., provides that a temporary permit is revocable by the land surveyor’s section at its pleasure. Consideration should be given to including that provision in the rule or referencing the provision in a note to the rule.
