2. A description of the objective of the proposed rule.

In order to continue implementing solutions that help school districts address staffing difficulties, the proposed rule’s objective is to provide further flexibility, transparency, and clarity around the teacher licensing process. In addition, the rule will implement the rule will implement recommendations issued by the Professional Standards Council for Teachers.

3. A description of the existing policies and new policies included in the proposed rule and an analysis of policy alternatives.

PI 34 contains the current administrative rules governing the licensure of school personnel. Section 115.425, Wis. Stats., and PI 34.36, Wis. Admin. Code, provide the duties of the Professional Standards Council for Teachers, which include advising the State Superintendent of Public Instruction on matters including the licensure of teachers, as well as review and make recommendations regarding administrative rules that relate to teacher preparation, licensure and regulation. The Department will identify new policies and possible alternatives during the rulemaking process, including those recommended by the Professional Standards Council. Such policies may include changes to teacher preparation, pathways into the profession, and strategies that develop, support, and retain teachers. Without a rule change, the Department will continue to administer school personnel licensure as it exists in PI 34.

4. The statutory authority for the proposed rule.

115.28 General duties. The state superintendent shall:

(7) Licensing of teachers.

(a) License all teachers for the public schools of the state; make rules establishing standards of attainment and procedures for the examination and licensing of teachers within the limits prescribed in ss. 118.19 (2) and (3), 118.191, 118.192, 118.193, 118.194, and 118.195; prescribe by rule standards, requirements, and procedures for the approval of teacher preparatory programs leading to licensure, including a requirement that, beginning on July 1, 2012, and annually thereafter, each teacher preparatory program located in this state shall submit to the department a list of individuals who have completed the program and who have been recommended by the program for licensure under this subsection, together with each individual's date of program completion, from each term or semester of the program's most recently completed academic year; file in the state superintendent's office all papers relating to state teachers' licenses; and register each such license.

5. An estimate of the amount of time agency employees will spend developing the proposed rule and of other resources needed to develop the rule.

The amount of time needed for rule development by department staff and the amount of other resources necessary are indeterminate.
