: (CLEARINGHOUSE RULE)

PROPOSED ORDER

An order of the Accounting Examining Board to amend Accy 2.002 (intro.) and 2.403 and repeal and recreate Accy 2.101 (2), 2.202, and 2.303, relating to education required for examination and certification.

Analysis prepared by the Department of Safety and Professional Services.

ANALYSIS

Statutes interpreted:

Section 442.04 (5) (b) 3. and 4., Stats.

Statutory authority:

Sections 15.08 (5) (b) and 442.04 (5) (b) 3. and 4., Stats.

Explanation of agency authority:

Section 15.08 (5) (b), Stats., provides examining boards “shall promulgate rules for its own guidance and for the guidance of the trade or profession to which it pertains. . .”

Section 442.04 (5) (b) 3., Stats., provides the Board may not grant a certificate as a certified public accountant to any person other than a person who “has completed at least 150 semester hours of education at an institution that include course work in accounting and business subjects, as determined by the examining board, and has received a bachelor's or higher degree.”

Section 442.04 (5) (b) 4., Stats., provides a person is not eligible to take the CPA examination “unless the person has completed at least 120 semester hours of education at an institution that include course work in accounting and business subjects, as determined by the examining board.”

Related statute or rule:

None.

Plain language analysis:

These proposed rules modify the semester hours and course subjects required in order to be granted a CPA certificate or to take the CPA examination, as follows:

1. Specifies methods for satisfying the 150 hours requirement for obtaining a CPA certificate. The methods differ depending on the degree received by the applicant and how the educational program, department, or educational institution from which the applicant earned the degree is accredited.
2. Provides that a person may satisfy the 120 hours requirement for taking the CPA examination if the person already satisfies the 150 hours requirement for obtaining a CPA certificate described above, the person otherwise satisfies the course content and semester hours required for a CPA certificate, or the person has completed course work that the board determines is reasonably equivalent to those requirements.

Summary of, and comparison with, existing or proposed federal regulation:

None.

Comparison with rules in adjacent states:

Illinois:

Illinois requires 150 college or university semester hours with an accounting concentration to be admitted to take the certified public accountant examination. The 150 hours must include a baccalaureate or higher degree conferred by an academic institution acceptable to the Illinois Board of Examiners (225 Ill. Comp. Stat. 450/3). The Board recognizes institutions of higher education accredited by a regional accrediting association recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation or the U.S. Department of Education. The Board also recognizes business schools accredited by the Association of Advance Collegiate Schools of Business or the Association of Collegiate Business Schools and Programs (23 Ill. Adm. Code 1400.90 (c) (2) (G)).

Iowa:

Qualifications for a certificate as a certified public accountant in Iowa includes completion of at least 150 semester hours of college level education and receiving a baccalaureate or higher degree by a college or university recognized by the Iowa Accountancy Examining Board (Iowa Code §542.5 (7)). The Board recognizes institutions accredited by the American Assembly of Collegiate Schools of Business (193A IAC 3.2). Other qualifications include one year of verified experience and successful completion of the uniform certified accountant's examination (193A IAC 3.1).

Michigan:

Certification requirements in Michigan include the completion of a least 150 semester hours of college education including a baccalaureate degree or higher with a concentration in accounting (Mich. Admin. Code R 338.5116). For purposes of accreditation the Michigan Board of Accountancy recognizes the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Institutions of Higher Education (Mich. Admin. Code R 338.5115). Qualifying experience for certification includes 2,000 hours of experience within a period of not less than one calendar year and not more than 5 calendar years (Mich. Admin. Code R 338.5117).

Minnesota:

The requirements for certification include the completion of one year of experience and 150 semester hours or 225 quarter hours at a college or university accredited by a recognized accrediting agency listed with the United States Department of Education, or an equivalent accrediting association (Minn. Stat. §326A.03 Subd. 6.). Before taking the examination an applicant is required to have a “baccalaureate or higher degree, with a major in accounting or a major in business with accounting emphasis, or an equivalent education, from a college or university that is fully accredited by a recognized accrediting agency listed with the United States Department of Education or an equivalent accrediting association.” (Minn. Stat. §326A.03 Subd. 3.).
