(21) The foregoing point schedule shall also cover similar ordinance violations even though the language of the ordinance adapting may vary.

(22) Demerit points shall not be assigned against the record of any person under age 18 whose operating privilege has been restricted, suspended or revoked under s.48.36 Wis. Stats. except as provided under MVD 11.06 (2) (a) administrative code.

(23) (a) Causes for mandatory restriction, suspension or revocation of operator's license. When restriction, suspension or revocation of license is directed by the court under section 343.30 (1), Wis. Stats., the point value charged against the record of the offender shall be in strict accordance with the charge for which conviction is made as shown in point schedule section MVD 11.03.

(b) As the revocation required under section 344.25 Wis. Stats., is for a civil liability which must be met and proof of future financial responsibility furnished before reinstatement of driving privileges can be obtained no point value shall be charged against the record of the operator against whom the judgment is obtained as a result of the judgment.

(24) (a) The demerit points charged against the record of any person who holds a probationary license or any unlicensed person who because of his limited experience or age would have been issued a probationary license had he made proper application and met all other requirements for license shall be double the demerit point value shown for conviction of violations set forth under 11.03(1) through (20) on the second and all subsequent convictions.

(b) Any person who has had his operating privilege revoked while licensed under a probationary license shall at the time of issue of any reinstated license and first renewal thereof be continued on a probationary license.

(c) Any person who has had his operating privilege restricted or suspended or who has accumulated more than 6 demerit points in the 12 month period immediately preceding his application for renewal of a probationary license shall be reissued a probationary license.

(25) In determining the accumulated demerit points against an operator within 12 months, 24 months, or 36 months, the department shall use the date each violation was committed as the basis for such determination.

MVD 11.04 Warnings. The department may notify any operator of the point value charged against his record when the record shows six or more points to have been accumulated in a 12 month period.

MVD 11.05 Suspension or Revocation of license. (1) Demerit points accumulated when a person is not operating as a chauffeur shall not be counted against his chauffeur license unless specifically required by law but demerit points accumulated by a person when operating as a chauffeur shall be counted against both his chauffeur license and his regular license.

(2) The department may suspend or revoke the operating privileges of any person when his driving record shows he has attained or accumulated 12 points in 12 months or 18 points in 24 months or 24 points in 36 months except any person who holds a probationary license or any unlicensed person who would have been issued a probationary license had he made application and met all other requirements for license and who has not had his operating privilege previously suspended or revoked shall have his operating privilege suspended.

(3) The department may suspend or revoke the chauffeur license of any person when his driving record shows he has attained or accumulated 12 points in 12 months or 18 points in 24 months or 24 points in 36 months for offenses committed while operating as a chauffeur or when the law requires assignment of points against his chauffeurs license.

MVD 11.06 Determination of Point value at reinstatement.

(1) The department upon issuing a reinstated operators license shall reduce the accumulated point value to 6 points, provided reinstatement of such operating privilege is made within 12 months from the date of the latest violation. If at the time of such reinstatement, the demerit point value in the immediately preceding 12 month period is less than 6, then the lesser point value shall be carried forward in the record.

(2) (a) The department shall assign 6 demerit points against the driving record of any person convicted of any offense which requires the mandatory revocation of operating privilege under 343.32 (1) (a) and (b) and 48.36 (2) (c) Wis. stats. when a reinstated operators license is issued to him within 1 year from date of such revocation.

(b) The department shall assign 6 demerit points against the driving record of any person upon issuing an occupational license or limited chauffeurs license to such person.

(3) (a) The department upon return of a probationary license which has been suspended shall reduce the accumulated point value to 6 points. If at the time of return the demerit point value in the immediately preceding 12 month period is less than 6, then the lesser point value shall be carried forward in the record.

(b) The department upon return of any license which has been suspended by order of the court under 343.30 (1) except a probationary license shall reduce the demerit points to 9 points. If at the time of such return the demerit point value in the immediately preceding 12 month period is less than 9, then the lesser point value shall be carried forward in the record.

MVD 11.07 Reduction of point value for clear driving record.

(1) For the first full year of operation without a traffic violation the total accumulated point value charged against an operator shall be reduced by one-third.

(2) For the second full year of operation without a traffic violation the remaining total accumulated point value charged against an operator shall be reduced by one-half.

(3) For the third full year of operation without a traffic violation the remaining accumulated point value charged against an operator shall be withdrawn.
