Register, October, 1976, No. 250, eff. 11-1-76.

Accy 3.03 Examination and re-examination. (1) Candidates to write the certified public accountant examination shall apply on an application form provided by the board. Applications must be complete, signed by the candidate, and be supported by the following:

(a) The appropriate fee.

Register, December, 1978, No. 276

(b) Two personal references attesting to the candidate's good moral character. References from relatives are not acceptable.

(c) Identification photograph properly notarized.

(d) Official transcripts for all academic work completed. The award of a bachelor's or higher degree must be reflected on one of the transcripts.

(2) Candidates will be notified by the board when their application is complete and has been accepted by the board, thus authorizing the candidate to write. Candidates will also be notified of the examination site at which the candidate is authorized to write.

(3) A candidate for the examination for the first time who passes at least 2 subjects, and whose grade on each of the remaining subjects is 50 or more, shall be conditionally credited with the subjects in which a passing grade was received, and may upon application be re-examined in the subject or subjects failed, at any 2 of the 4 semi-annual examinations next following the examination in which qualified, provided, however, that a candidate who passes 3 subjects shall be conditionally credited with the subjects passed, the grade received in the remaining subject notwithstanding.

(4) If on the first examination a candidate passes all subjects or on re-examination, the candidate passes the subjects which were failed or for which credit was not received, the candidate shall be eligible for the certified public accountant certificate, provided the other requirements of the law and these regulations are met.

(5) A candidate who fails in the remaining 2 trials to receive credit for passing grades in the remaining subjects, shall revert to the status of a new applicant, and will be required to write all subjects in the event the candidate is again a candidate.

(6) A candidate who on first examination or at any re-examination passes 2 subjects, but whose grade on any of the remaining subjects is less than 50, will not receive conditional credit for the subjects passed, and will be required to write all subjects as a new candidate. To add a subject or subjects not passed to the subjects for which conditional credit has been established, a candidate must write all parts not passed, receive a grade of at least 75 on the part or parts rewritten and to be added, and have a grade of 50 or more on any part remaining to be passed.

(7) A candidate who has failed to receive a passing grade in at least one subject may not present himself or herself for re-examination until at least one examination shall have intervened following the candidate's last examination or re-examination excepting that if any examination papers of a candidate were lost and consequently not graded and the candidate could not attend the make-up examination, the candidate may present himself or herself for re-examination at the next scheduled examination.

(8) A candidate who is absent from writing the examination while serving in the armed forces of the United States government and for 6 months thereafter will not be regarded as being absent when evidence of the relevant service in the armed forces is established with the board.

(9) Applicants who have completed educational requirements will be permitted to write the examinations beginning with the first examination following their graduation, but no certificate will be issued until all other requirements are met.

(10) An applicant for a certified public accountant certificate or to write the certified public accountant examination must be:

(a) A resident of the state of Wisconsin or

(b) Provide proof of resident alien status with reliable evidence of intent to practice in Wisconsin.
