

No. 29.

AN ACT to prevent trespass on school lands.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the council and house of representatives of the territory of Wisconsin, That if any person or persons shall hereafter trespass upon the school lands, or on the sixteenth section, by cutting down, destroying, or hauling from off the same, any timber or wood of any kind, mineral, stone, or stone coal, he or they so offending shall forfeit and pay, for every such offence, the sum of not less than twenty dollars, to be recovered before any justice of the peace within the county where such trespass may have been committed, upon complaint of any citizen or resident of the county; and the fine so recovered shall be paid over to the treasurer of such county, and be appropriated to the use of schools within the township where such trespass was committed.

Trespass on school lands, how punished.

Fine, to whom paid.

SECTION 2. This act to be in force from and after the first day of January next: provided, however, that this act shall not be so construed as to prohibit any person from using any of the timber on said school land for the purpose of cultivating such land.

Exception and proviso.

P. H. ENGLE,

Speaker of the house of representatives.

HENRY S. BAIRD,

H. DODGE.

Approved Dec. 9, 1836.
