

An Act to restore the County of Adams to its former boundaries.

Chap. 29. The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Boundaries.

SECTION 1. That all that district of country embraced within the following boundaries shall form and constitute the county of Adams, to wit: Townships number fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen and twenty north, in ranges number two, three, four, five, six and seven, east of the fourth principal meridian.

SEC. 2. All acts and parts of acts contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved, March 14, 1853.

Chap. 30. An Act to organize the County of Adams for county and judicial purposes, and for the location of the county seat thereof.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

When organized.

SECTION 1. That the county of Adams shall be organized, from and after the first Tuesday in April next, for judicial and county purposes, and shall enjoy all the rights, privileges, immunities and powers of the other counties of this State.

Boundaries.

SEC. 2. Said county of Adams shall be, and hereby is (after the first Tuesday in April next,) organized into five towns, to be bounded as follows, viz: That portion of said county lying east of the Wisconsin river, in township fourteen (14) and fifteen (15), in ranges five [5], six (6) and seven (7) east, is hereby organized into one town, to be called the town of Jackson, and the first election in said town shall be held at the house of Thomas Ritchie.

Town of Grand Marsh.

And all that part of said county lying in townships sixteen (16), seventeen (17), eighteen (18), nineteen (19), and twenty north of ranges six (6) and seven (7) east, is hereby organized into one town, to be called the town of Grand Marsh, and the first election in said town shall be held at the house of — Peck.

Quincey.

And all that part of said county lying in townships fifteen (15), sixteen (16), and seventeen (17), in ranges four (4) and five (5) east, on either side of the Wisconsin river, is hereby organized into one town, to be called the town of Quincey, and the first election in said town shall be held at the house of Henry W. Kingsbury.