

Can hold and convey real estate.

SEC. 2. The objects of the society being to promote and improve the condition of agriculture, horticulture, and the mechanical, manufacturing and household arts, it shall be allowed, for those purposes only, to take, hold, and convey real and personal estate; the former not exceeding in value ten thousand dollars.

General powers.

SEC. 3. The said corporation shall possess all the powers and privileges conferred, and be subject to all the liabilities imposed, upon corporations by the revised statutes of this state, so far as the same may be applicable.

Executive committee may call meetings.

SEC. 4. For the purpose of organizing said society under this charter, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before it, the executive committee of the society may call a meeting of the same, at such time and place as they may deem proper; first giving due notice thereof.

SEC. 5. The said society may continue to use and occupy the southeast corner room in the basement of the capitol, until otherwise ordered by the legislature.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and may be amended, altered, or repealed by any future legislature.

Approved, February 9, 1853.

Chap. 6.

An Act to repeal an Act entitled an Act in reference to Appeals from Justices' Courts; approved April 16, 1852.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An act entitled an act in reference to appeals from justice courts, approved April 16, 1852, is hereby repealed: Provided, That no proceeding by appeal commenced under the act hereby repealed, shall be affected by this repeal.

Approved, February 10, 1853.

Chap. 7.

An Act to organize the County of Waupacca for judicial purposes.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

When organized.

SECTION 1. From and after the first day of April next, the county of Waupacca shall be fully organized for judicial purposes, and shall enjoy all the rights and privileges appertaining to other counties so organized in this state.

SEC. 2. Said county of Waupacca shall be and hereby is constituted a part of the third judicial circuit, and two terms of the circuit court shall be holden annually in said county, at the county seat thereof, to wit: on the third Monday of March, and the third Monday in August, annually. There shall be four terms of the county court annually, to wit: on the first Mondays in February, May, August, and November.

Made part of third judicial circuit.

Terms of court

SEC. 3. All writs shall issue and be made returnable as required by law in other counties; and all laws now in force applicable to the summoning and empannelling of jurors, shall be applicable to and be in force in the said county of Waupacca.

How writs returnable.

SEC. 4. The qualified electors of said county shall, on the first Tuesday of April, 1853, elect a sheriff, clerk of the court, and register of deeds for said county, who shall hold their offices until the first day of January, 1855; and a county judge, who shall hold his office until the first day of January, 1854, and until his successor is elected and qualified. At such election the votes given for such officers shall be returned and canvassed in the same manner as votes are returned and canvassed at a general election in other organized counties of this state.

Election of officers.

How returns to be made.

SEC. 5. After such first election, all county officers provided for by the law of this state, shall be elected in said county at the same time and in the same manner as is provided by law in other organized counties.

Approved, February 11, 1853.

An Act to divide the County of La Crosse, and create the County of Jackson.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Chap. 8.

SECTION 1. All that portion of country now embraced in La Crosse county, north of the township line, between township (18) eighteen and (19) nineteen, extending from Adams county to the state line in the Mississippi river, is hereby set off into a separate county, to be called and known as the county of Jackson.

Boundaries.

SEC. 2. That the county of Jackson, aforesaid, shall be organized after the first day of March next (1853), for the purposes of county government, and shall enjoy all the

When organized.