

Commissioner
not to pay money
to convicts during
time of confinement.

amount to the several convicts to whom it may belong, on a book kept for that purpose, which amount he shall pay over to each convict at the expiration of his term of confinement, or remit the same to their families or friends if they desire to have it done, and in case there shall remain in the commissioner's hands at the expiration of his term of office any money or moneys which is the property of convicts, the said commissioner shall pay such money or moneys to his successor, whose duty it shall be to keep and disburse the same as hereinbefore provided, and the said commissioner and his sureties shall be held accountable for moneys so received in the same manner that they would be, provided the said money was the property of the state, but in no case shall the said commissioner pay any money to convicts during their time of confinement.

Approved, March 11, 1854.

Chap. 33.

AN ACT to amend Chapter 128 of the Revised Statutes.

Published, April 8, 1854.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

State tax shall not exceed $1 on such judgment.

§ 1. That whenever judgments shall be entered against insolvent debtors pursuant to section twenty-one of chapter one hundred and twenty-eight of the revised statutes, the state tax thereon shall not exceed on all of such judgments the sum of one dollar, and the clerk's fees on such judgments and discharging the same pursuant to said chapter shall not exceed five dollars.

§ 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved, March 16, 1854.