

CHAPTER 43.

Published May 6.

An Act to regulate the terms of the circuit courts in the counties comprising the seventh judicial circuit.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Time of holding court in seventh judicial circuit.

SECTION 1. From and after the first day of June, 1856, the terms of the circuit court shall be holden in the counties of Adams, Marathon, Portage, Waushara and Waupacca, in the seventh judicial circuit, at the time following, in each year: In the county of Marathon on the second Monday of March and last Monday of August. In the county of Portage on the fourth Monday of March and second Monday of September. In the county of Waupacca on the first Monday of April and second Monday in October. In the county of Waushara on the second Monday of April and first Monday in October. In the county of Adams on the third Monday of April and fourth Monday in September.

Writs, &c. returnable.

SEC. 2. All writs, summons, indictments, recognizances and other proceedings made returnable by any law of this state now in force, to the circuit courts of said counties, shall be deemed and taken to be returnable to the terms of said courts as fixed by this act, and all adjournments, appearances, continuances, motions and notices of any proceedings in said courts, made or taken to any term of a date subsequent to the term when this act shall take effect, shall be made and taken for the time herein before fixed for holding the terms of said court.

Special terms.

SEC. 3. It shall not be obligatory on the judge of said seventh circuit to hold special terms therein, unless in his opinion there is business in any of said courts requiring the holding of special terms.

Repealing clause.

SEC. 4. All laws now in force in this state inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

Approved March 28, 1856.
