

For what purpose. to supply the deficient school districts of the state, and to be distributed as provided in chapter twenty-two of the general laws of 1858.

To be received for. SEC. 2. On receipt of such dictionaries, each town or city superintendent so receiving them shall deliver to the librarian or clerk of each town or city one copy for each common school, and each department of graded or high school entitled thereto, and shall take his receipt for the same, and file it among the records of his office.

How owned and used. SEC. 3. Such dictionaries, when received by the several districts in this state, shall be considered as belonging to the library of the districts, and shall be subject to the same laws and regulations as other library books, but during the time a school shall be taught therein it shall be and remain in the school room during the hours of school, for the exclusive use of the scholars and teachers of such schools, and under the control of the teacher or principal, who shall be responsible to the district for its loss, or for any unnecessary damage it may receive, the same as any other book of the district library.

Appropriation for same. SEC. 4. There is hereby appropriated out of the income of the school fund a sum of money sufficient to pay for the dictionaries provided for in this act to be paid out of the first moneys received into the school fund income after the apportionment of the present year; and the amount so paid shall be deducted from the amount subject to apportionment for the year next following after the said payment for dictionaries; and the state superintendent of public instruction shall certify to the state treasurer the amount of such expenditures and deductions accordingly.

Take effect. SEC. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 17, 1859.

CHAPTER 139.

AN ACT to amend chapter one hundred and thirty-nine of the revised statutes, entitled "Of appeals and writs of error, and proceedings thereon."

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Appeals, duty of clerk. SECTION 1. That on an appeal under the provisions of chapter one hundred and thirty-nine of the revised statutes, from any order made before final judgment, the clerk shall transmit to the supreme court the notice of appeal, and certified copy of the order appealed from, and of the papers on which the appeal was granted, unless the circuit court shall direct the original papers to be sent instead of copies thereof.

SEC. 2. That no appeal from an intermediate order shall stay proceedings in the circuit court unless security shall be given by an undertaking executed by two or more freeholders, in such sum as the circuit judge shall direct, for the payment, in case the order appealed from shall be affirmed, of any final judgment that may be recovered by the appellee. Security to be given.

SEC. 3. So much of chapter one hundred and thirty-nine of the revised statutes as conflicts with the provisions of this act, is hereby repealed. Repealed.
