CHAPTER 218.

AN ACT to authorize the state superintendent of common schools to apportion school monies to certain towns therein named.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The state superintendent is hereby authorized and directed to apportion the present year to the towns of Cooperstown, Franklin, and Kossuth, in the county of Manitowoc; the towns of Bear Creek, Albany, Frankfort, Waubeck and Lima, in the county of Pepin; the town of New Hope, in the county of Portage; and the town of Kaukauna, in the county of Outagamie, in proportion to the number of children properly reported as entitled to share in the school fund apportionment, the same as though there were no deficiency in their school tax levy. ^{Apportionment to certain towns.}

SEC. 2. These several towns shall and are hereby required to levy their this year's deficiency in addition to their next regular school tax levy; and if they fail to do so, and fail to make their proper report to the state superintendent; as provided in chapter four of the session laws of this session, then the state superintendent shall, and he is hereby directed to deduct the amount apportioned the present year, from the amount that such towns may be entitled to by the apportionment of 1860. ^{School tax levy.}

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage. ^{Duty of state superintendent.}

Approved March 19, 1859.
