CHAPTER 113.

[Published March 21, 1860.]

AN ACT to amend chapter ninety-one of the Laws of 1858, entitled "An act to provide for the protection of stockholders of railroad corporations."

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Books, records
&c., open to inspection.

SECTION 1. The secretary, or other officer, or agent, of any railroad corporation, who, by the charter or by-laws of such corporation, is made the custodian of the books, records and papers, or other property of such corporation, shall keep the same in his possession, and at all times, during business hours, have the same ready to be exhibited to any officer, director, or any committee appointed by the stockholders of any railroad corporation, representing one-tenth of all the subscribed stock of such company, on request, and to furnish to them, or either of them, transcripts from the records of proceedings of the board of directors of such corporation, under his official hand and seal, on the payment to him of the same fee as that now required by law to be made to the register of deeds for transcripts of the records of the office of register of deeds. And the said secretary shall, on resigning his office, make over all such books, records, papers, and other property of the corporation, which may have been in his possession, to his successor in office, or where no successor has been appointed or elected, to the board of directors, if any, or to the person or persons appointed by the majority of the stockholders of such corporation; and such secretary, on being duly subpoenaed to appear as a witness in any cause or trial in any court of justice in this state, shall attend and produce such books, records and papers of the corporation, as may be demanded in such subpoena, to be used in such trial; and any such secretary, who wilfully refuses or neglects to comply with the provisions of this act, or violate any of its provisions, shall be subject to the same punishments as provided by section eight of the act of which this is amendatory.

SEC. 2. The provisions of any act, inconsistent with Repeal this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 15, 1860.
