AN ACT to restore William Greeno to citizenship.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. William Greeno, a late convict in the State Prison of this State, is hereby restored to citizenship, and shall enjoy the same rights and privileges, to all intents and purposes, which he had and was entitled to before his conviction. Restored to citizenship.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 15, 1860.

CHAPTER 118.

[Published March 21, 1860.]

AN ACT to make certain records in Brown county, evidence in certain cases.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The records of Brown county, made prior to January 1st, 1840, of deeds and mortgages of lands being in other counties at the time such records were made, (when it shall appear therefrom that such deeds and mortgages were duly executed and acknowledged) and certified copies of such records shall be prima facie evidence of the execution of such deeds and mortgages, and such records, and certified copies therefrom, shall be received in evidence in all courts and places, with the same effect as if such deeds and mortgages had been recorded in the county where the lands covered thereby are situated: Provided, that such evidence shall in no way interfere with or prejudice the rights of bona fide purchasers of any lands covered by any such deed or mortgage, without notice of the existence of such deed or mortgage; and Provided further, that no such notice shall, in any case, be presumed or implied. Records of Brown Co. to be used as evidence in other counties.
