CHAPTER 178.

AN ACT to amend chapter 30, of the Private and Local Laws of Wisconsin for the year 1859, entitled an act to amend an act to incorporate the village of Waukesha.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented, in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1.   It shall not be lawful for the president and trustees of the village of Waukesha to levy a tax exceeding the sum of five hundred dollars, in any one year, for the purpose of defraying the current expenses of said village, unless two-thirds of the electors, voting upon the subject, shall vote in favor of levying a greater sum, at an election to be held for such purpose, under the direction of said trustees.   No such election shall be held unless notice thereof shall be given by said trustees, or a majority of them, by publishing such notice not less than ten nor more than twenty days, in one or more newspapers published in said village, specifying the time and place of holding such election, and the names of the inspectors thereof; and the polls of such election shall be open for at least four hours, between nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon, of the day appointed therefor.

Taxes in Waukesha restricted to $500, except by vote of electors.

Notice to be given of election.
