SEC. 18. As between grantor and grantee of any lands affected by this act, and as between any other persons interested in such lands, their rights, liabilities, obligations and equities shall remain the same as though this act had not been passed; and the taxes and assessments, for each of the years mentioned herein, had been legally levied and collected, or the lands sold for the nonpayment thereof, in the year, under the law existing at the time said taxes and assessments should have been levied. Rights not affected.

SEC. 19. In all cases where the credits authorized to be directed by this act shall exceed the amount of tax heretofore paid on any lot or parcel of land, or by any person for personal tax, the same shall be repaid, by the city, to the person or persons who paid the same, or for whom the same was paid, or to their legal representatives. Excess of credits to be repaid.

SEC. 20. This act shall be published immediately, and shall be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 2, 1860.

AN ACT [for an act] to perfect the geological survey of the State.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. James Hall, of Albany, New York, is hereby constituted and appointed principal of the geological commission established by chapter forty, of the General laws of 1857, and is hereby vested with such general control and supervision of the geological survey of the State, as is not already expressly reserved to the several commissioners designated in said chapter. James Hall appointed principal of geological survey.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the said James Hall to make a written contract with J. D. Whitney, which contract shall be approved by the Governor, providing for the completion, within the present year, of his survey and maps of the lead mines of the south western por- To contract with J. tion of the State, which maps shall include the whole of such district, and shall be constructed upon a uniform scale. A contract shall also be made in the same manner with Charles Whittlesey, for the continuance of his survey of the mineral regions of Lake Superior.

SEC. 3. For the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of the preceding section, the Governor is hereby authorized, upon the presentation of the proper vouchers, to draw from the treasury such portion of the sum appropriated by said chapter forty, of the general laws of 1857, as was not drawn previous to the signing of the contracts with the commissioners on the 29th day of May, A. D. 1858, and all that part of said appropriation, hereby authorized to be drawn by the Governor, which shall not be required to carry into effect the provisions of the contracts, as provided in the preceding section, shall be appropriated for the engraving of maps and drawings to illustrate the surveys therein provided for.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1860.
