CHAPTER 336.

AN ACT to incorporate the village of Englsburg.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

Boundaries of village.

SECTION 1. All that district of country included in the following description, lying and being in the town of Granville, county of Milwaukee, and State of Wisconsin, to-wit: Sections numbered thirty-two and thirty-three (32 and 33) in township numbered eight, (8) north, in range number twenty-one (21) east, shall hereafter be known and designated as the village of Englsburg, and the inhabitants residing, or who may hereafter reside, within the limits of said two sections of land, are hereby constituted a body corporate by the name of "The President and Trustees of the Village of Englsburg," and by that name they and their successors, for ever, hereafter, shall and may have perpetual succession, and shall be capable of contracting and being contracted with, suing and being sued, impleading and being impleaded, answering and being answered unto, defending and being defended, in all courts and places, and in all suits whatever.

CHAPTER 386.

Body corporate

Powers.

§ 2. It shall be lawful for all free male inhabitants of said village, over the age of twenty-one years, to meet at the school house in district number twelve, in said town of Granville, on the third Monday of April, 1860, at ten o'clock A. M., of said day, and choose, viva voce, two judges of election, and one clerk, and elect by ballot, one president, who shall be ex-officio a trustee, four trustees, one treasurer, one assessor, one clerk, and one marshal.

Organization of village.

§ 3. On the first Monday in April in each year thereafter, there shall be an annual election of the officers of said village, above specified; and the trustees shall give ten days' notice of the time and place of holding the same by posting such notice in at least three conspicuous places in said village, for ten days before the day of holding the same; and they, or any two of them, shall preside at the same, and act as inspectors of such election.

Annual election.

§ 4. No person shall be eligible to any of said offices unless he be an elector and qualified by law to vote for town officers.

Eligibility to office.

§ 5. At all elections by the voters of said village, held under this act, the polls shall be opened at ten o'clock A. M., and continued open till two o'clock P. M., and the election shall be conducted, and the votes canvassed, and the result declared, as far as may be, in a similar manner to election for officers of villages under chapter seventy, of the Revised Statutes. A plurality of votes shall, in all cases, decide the election.

Polls opened.

Result declared

§ 6. In case such officers, or any of them, shall not be chosen on the day herein provided for the same, the corporation hereby created shall not thereby be dissolved, but vacancies of the office of president or trustees shall be filled at a special election, to be called by the remaining trustees, and vacancies in all other offices shall be filled by the trustees. All of said officers shall hold their offices until the first Monday of Vacancies may be filled at special election.

CHAPTER 336. April next following their election, and until others are elected and qualified in their stead.

Bonds of office. § 7. The board of trustees shall have power to require bonds to be given by the treasurer and marshal to the trustees, in such sum, with such conditions, and with such security, as said trustees, or a majority of them, shall direct; which bonds shall be filed with the clerk, and a failure to give such bond, shall work a forfeiture of office; and said board shall have power to declare the office vacant, and to fill the vacancy by appointment.

Duty of President. § 8. It shall be the duty of the president to preside at all meetings of the trustees, to see that all by-laws and ordinances are duly observed, and to prosecute all suits which may be necessary in the name of the corporation.

Powers of Board. § 9. The board of trustees shall have all the powers, which are by chapter seventy of the revised statutes vested in, and conferred upon, the trustees of village corporations created and organized under said chapter seventy.

Chapter 70 of R. S. to apply. § 10. All that part of chapter seventy, of the revised statutes, embraced between sections twenty-four and seventy-two of said chapter, and including both of said sections twenty-four and seventy-two, so far as the same are applicable and consistent with the provisions of this act, shall apply to and govern the corporation hereby created, to the same extent and with the same effect as if said portion of said chapter seventy, were incorporated in, and made a part of, this act.

Alter, &c. § 11. The legislature may at any time alter, modify, or repeal this act.

§ 12. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Declaratory. § 13. It is hereby declared that in the judgment of the legislature the objects of the corporation hereby created, cannot be obtained under the general laws relating to villages.

Approved April 2, 1860.
