CHAPTER 264.

[Published April 18, 1861.]

AN ACT to authorize the Secretary of State to audit the account of the architects of the capitol extension, and appropriate a sum of money therein named.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Accounts of A. Kutzbock and Roselle M. Donnell.

SECTION 1. The secretary of state is hereby authorized and directed to audit the account of A. Kutzbock and Roselle M. Donnell, widow of S. H. Donnell, to the amount of three thousand dollars, in full for plans, specifications and estimates for the west wing of the capitol extension, and he is hereby directed to draw his warrant upon the state treasurer for said sum, payable out of the sum appropriated by chapter sixty-six of the general laws of 1861, approved March 9th, 1861; and the state treasurer is hereby directed to pay the same out of the sum appropriated by said act for the year eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and upon the payment thereof, the state treasury shall take a receipt in full of all demands against the state for all plans, specifications and estimates made or required for said west wing; and the said plans, specifications and estimates shall become the property of the state.

How payable.

Appropriation to Roselle M. Donnell.

SECTION 2. There is hereby appropriated to Roselle M. Donnell, widow of S. H. Donnell, one of the architects of the capitol extension, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) in full of the interest of said S. H. Donnell for all plans, specifications and estimates for the entire capitol extension, and all extra services and compensation rendered or claimed therefor; and upon the payment thereof, the state treasurer shall take a receipt therefor in full of such claims, which shall be conclusive of a final settlement of all demands in behalf of the state, of said S. H. Donnel against the state.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved, April 13, 1861.

CHAPTER 265.

[Published April 22, 1861.]

AN ACT adopting, ratifying and confirming the settlement made by the Secretary of State on the part of the State, with Stephen D. Carpenter, made in May, A. D. 1860.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The settlement of James Ross and Stephen D. Carpenter, assignee of said James Ross, with the state of Wisconsin, of the accounts, claims and demands of the said James Ross and his said assignee, arising from or connected with the contract for doing the public printing, made and entered into between the state of Wisconsin and James Ross of the city of Madison, in said state, on the thirtieth day of November, A. D. 1858, and the several agreements and stipulations in respect to such settlement, made by the secretary of state in the month of May, A. D. 1860, as the said agreements and stipulations appear upon the records and by the papers on file in the office of said secretary, and as set forth in the annual report of the secretary of state for the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, are hereby fully adopted, ratified and confirmed on behalf of the state.

Settlement of account for state printing, confirmed.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 15, 1861.
