CHAPTER 131.

[Published March 27, 1862.]

AN ACT to suspend the sale of certain lands mortgaged to the state or held by volunteers.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

When lands mortgaged to the state to be sold.

SECTION 1. No lands mortgaged to the state of Wisconsin, to secure the payment of any loan heretofore made to any person now a private soldier or non-commissioned officer in the service of the United States, or of either of the loyal states, nor any school, university or swamp lands, or the lands usually denominated "state lands," held by certificate or otherwise, by any such person now in the service of the United States, or either of the loyal states, shall be sold for the non-payment of any interest due, or which may become due, on any such mortgage or loan, or on any such certificate, untill [until] the expiration of three months after such person is discharged from such service, by the expiration of the war, or the term of his enlistment, or otherwise.

SECTION 2. If any sale has been made of any lands so mortgaged as aforesaid, or held by certificate as aforesaid, or any penalties have been attached to any such lands so mortgaged, or so held as aforesaid, then, and in either case, it shall be the duty of the commissioners of school and university lands to remit all such penalties, and to cancel all sales of such lands so made, where the state was the purchaser, and the lands have not been resold; and if any such penalty shall have been paid by or for any such person as aforesaid, on any lands so mortgaged or held as aforesaid, then the commissioners aforesaid shall credit such sum or sums so paid as penalty towards the interest which may be accruing upon any such lands.

Penalties to be remitted, &c.

SECTION 3. Any such private soldier or non-commissioned officer, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, shall have the right, at any time within three months after his discharge from service, or within three months after the expiration of the war, to redeem any lands so mortgaged to secure the payment of any loan made to any such person (being in the service as aforesaid,) or any lands held by certificate as aforesaid, by paying to the state treasurer or said commissioners, the interest on the amount due the state on such loan or certificate, at the rate of seven per cent. per annum, from and after the first day of January, A. D. 1861, up to the date of such payment, anything contained in any law of this state to the contrary notwithstanding.

Redemption.

SECTION 4. The provisions of this act shall not apply to any lands sold by, or which may be transferred [transferred] by any such person, after the first day of January, A. D. 1862; and it shall also be made to appear to the commissioners, by the affidavit of some person of good moral character, or by certificate from the proper officer, that the person for whom the benefit of
