

CHAPTER 259.

[Published April 11, 1862.]

AN ACT concerning the terms of court in the ninth judicial circuit.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Two special terms each year, for trial of issues of law, &c.

SECTION 1. There shall be holden by the circuit judge of the ninth judicial circuit, at least two special terms within said circuit, in each year, for the trial of issues of law, for the hearing of motions, and the transaction of any and all business that may be done at a stated term, except the trial of issues of fact, by a jury, at such times and places as the judge of said circuit shall designate, which designation shall be made as soon as practicable, and before the first day of June, and shall not be changed within one year; and at such terms, the issues of law and motions, and all other business that may be transacted thereat, pending in any and every county in said circuit, may be heard and disposed of with the same force and effect as it may now be heard and disposed of in the counties in which the causes or matters are pending; and when the causes or matters are pending in other counties of the circuit, different from the county in which the special term is holden, the clerk of the circuit court shall certify the orders, judgments and papers to the clerk of the circuit court of the county where the same is pending; and the papers shall be filed and entered by the clerk of the court where the cause or matter is pending, in the same manner as if the cause or matter had been heard or decided by the circuit court at a term thereof, holden in the county where it is pending.

Business that may be disposed of.

Transmission of papers, &c.

§ 2. For the purpose of the hearing or trial of any cause or matter in any other county than that where the same is pending, the clerk of the circuit court shall, at the request of either of the attorneys in said cause or matter, transmit all the papers on file in said cause or matter to the place of trial or hearing, under his official certificate, certifying the same to be all the original files and papers in such action, cause or matter. Such papers or files shall be by such clerk inclosed in an envelop, sealed by him, directed to the clerk of the circuit court of the county where such special term is to be, or is being held; and the same may be transmitted by mail, or by the hand of either of the attorneys in such cause, action or matter: provided, that before any clerk shall be obliged to transmit any such papers or files or orders, all necessary postage therefor shall be paid by the party applying therefor; and provided, further, that no clerk shall be required to certify back any papers, files, judgments or orders to any such county where the same were originally pending, until his fees in such cause or matter are paid.

Postage and clerk's fees to be paid.

§ 3. Chapter 126 of the general laws of 1860, entitled "an act to authorize the holding of a special term of the circuit court in and for the county of Jefferson," is hereby repealed.

Repeal.

§ 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 7, 1862.
