

streets or parts of streets mentioned in section one of this act, to be paved, they shall order such kind of pavement to be laid therein as shall be fixed [upon] by the persons owning a majority in number of the lots fronting on that portion of the street so ordered to be paved, and residing in the city; and every such owner may petition said street commissioners in writing, stating the kind of pavement he may desire to have laid, and stating, also, the lot or lots owned by him. Such petition shall be filed by said street commissioners in the office of the city comptroller, and shall be kept by him with the other records and papers kept and filed in his office.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect from its passage and publication.

Approved April 5, 1862.

---

CHAPTER 306.

[Published April 14, 1862.]

AN ACT to authorize the common council of the city of Milwaukee to levy an additional amount of tax for the year 1862, to pay off certain indebtedness therein mentioned.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The common council of the city of Milwaukee is hereby authorized and empowered to levy upon the real and personal taxable property of the said city, for the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, a tax, in addition to the amount of tax which said common council is now authorized by law to levy, sufficient in amount to pay off and discharge the amount which may remain due or unpaid, for principal and interest, upon the following indebtedness to said city, viz.: The amount which may remain unpaid upon a note or bond and mortgage, executed by said city to John S. Rockwell, on lot eleven, in block eleven, in the seventh ward, being fifteen hundred dollars of principal, besides interest; the amount remaining unpaid upon a mortgage executed by said city to Charles H.

Indebtedness to John S. Rock-
well, Charles H.
Larkin and M.
Neubauer.

Larkin, on lots one, two and three, in block number thirty, in the fifth ward of said city, being three hundred dollars of principal, and the interest thereon; also, the amount remaining unpaid on two notes executed by said city to M. Neubauer, for seven hundred dollars each, on or about the eleventh day of February, 1860, in part payment of the purchase money for lots one and four, in block twelve, in Kneeland's addition, in the ninth ward, being fourteen hundred dollars and the interest thereon; which additional tax shall be levied, assessed and collected at the same time and in the same manner as, and shall be included in and shall form a part of, the tax which shall be levied, assessed and collected for general city purposes, for the said year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 5, 1862.

CHAPTER 307.

[Published April 14, 1862.]

AN ACT to authorize the common council of the city of Milwaukee to levy a tax on [the] taxable property in the second and sixth wards of the city of Milwaukee, to pay principal and interest of bonds issued to David Knab, January 1, 1859.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Tax for payment of bonds issued to David Knab.

SECTION 1. The common council of the city of Milwaukee is hereby authorized and directed to levy a tax on all the taxable property in the second and sixth wards of the city of Milwaukee, in addition to the general ward tax for each year in those wards, sufficient to pay the principal and interest, at seven per cent. from the first day of January, 1862, of twelve certain ward bonds issued to Daniel Knab, January 1, 1859, for grading and filling the public park situated in the said second ward, and belonging to the second and sixth wards of said city.

Limit to tax.

SECTION 2. One-half of the tax provided to be levied in section one of this act, shall be levied on the taxable